

Ferry, R. H.
The Plant of Victory

To the Officers and to the brave and honored Boys of the U.S. Army and Navy

The Shout of Victory

Words by LILA G. A. WOOLFALLMusic by ROBERT HUNTINGTON TERRY

Tempo di Marcia

ff Bravura

8<sup>vo</sup>

1. The blue of night with
2. Neath the flam - ing em - blem that
3. Some are maimed and
4. As we stand on the shore and

Steady tempo

Bugle

marcato stars be - strown, Fades in - to the glow of dawn, And the soars on high, On the dis - tant line where sea meets sky O'er the some are whole, But joy reigns su - preme in ev - 'ry soul For the watch and wait, A dis - tant sound swells to vol - ume great 'Tis the first red streaks in a pale, pale sky Show the Stars and Stripes in the o - cean waves that surge and toss A fleet of ships is strug - gle is o'er and the bat - tle won, And Peace is the guer - don for cho - rus of voic - es from ma - ny throats Wait - ed to us from the heav - ens high, like the flag of Vic - to - ry wav - ing bright As the plow - ing a cross, Bear - ing our boys in Kha - ki clad du - ty done, And lives laid down on the bat - tle field Were fleet of boats. The Vic - tors are sing - ing to the sound of band As they Sun of Peace dis - pels War's night. And our gal - lant troops are home - ward bound As the Hearts are joy - ous and hearts are sad. As our gal - lant troops are home - ward bound And the givn that Might to Right should yield. So our gal - lant troops are home - ward bound And the near the shores of their nat - ive land. For our gal - lant troops are home - ward bound As the shouts of Vic - to - ry re - sound. ——— Vic - to - ry! Vic - to - ry!

Vic - to - ry! Vic - to - ry! Vic - to - ry!

D. C. al Segno  $\text{\textcircled{S}}$

455886