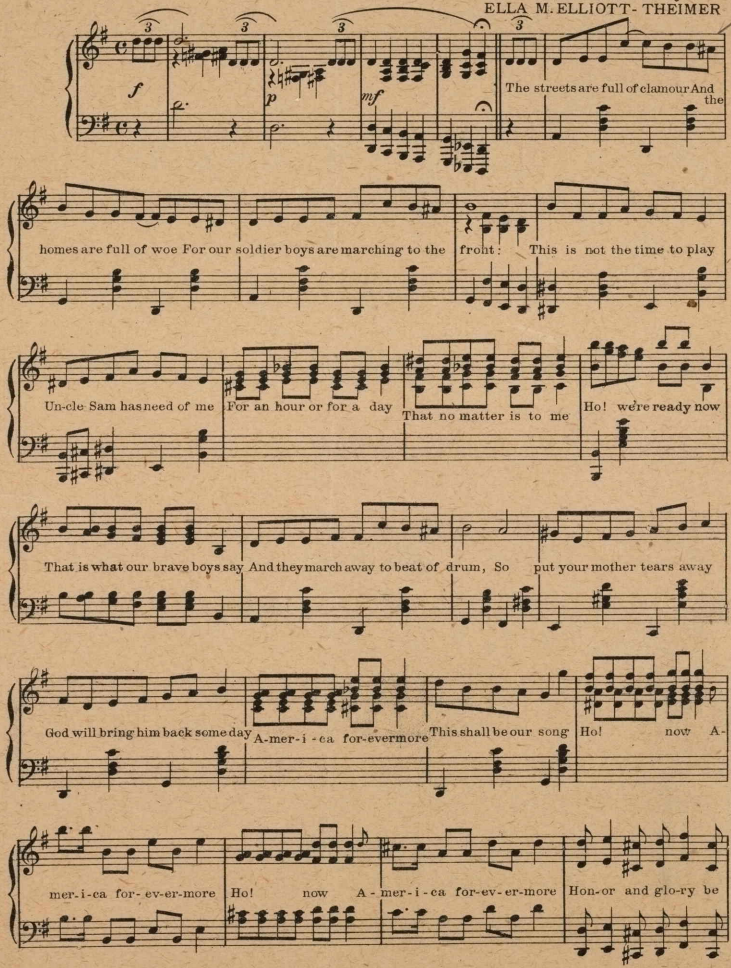
©CLE408253

JUN 25 1917

America For Evermore

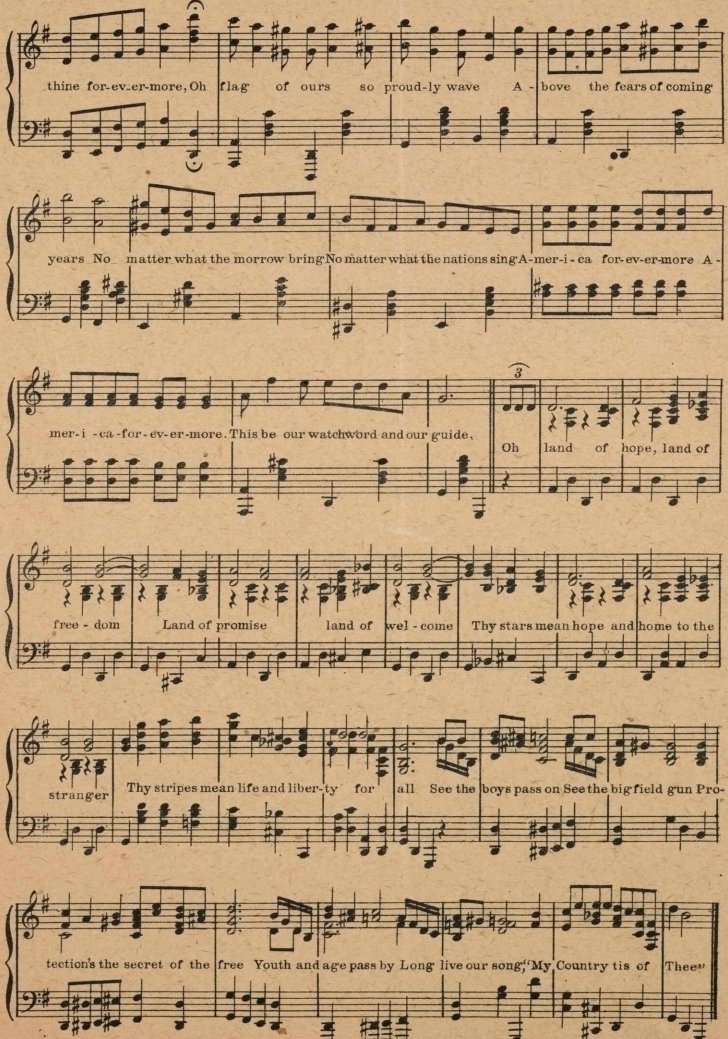
Words and Music by
ELLA M. ELLIOTT- THEIMER



Copyright MCMXVII by Mrs. Karl P. Theimer, Owatonna, Minn.

For additional copies or other information of this song address owner of copyright.

M1646
.T



thine for-ev-er-more, Oh flag of ours so proud-ly wave A - bove the fears of coming years No matter what the morrow bring No matter what the nations sing A-mer-i-ca for-ev-er-more Amer-i-ca-for-ev-er-more. This be our watchword and our guide.
3
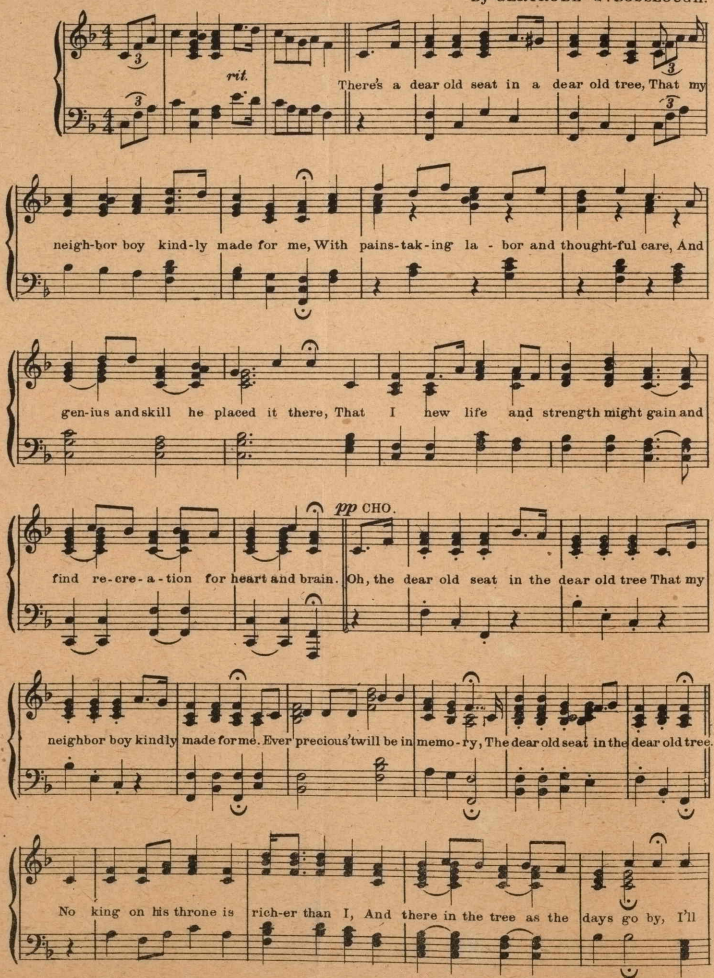
Oh land of hope, land of free - dom Land of promise land of wel - come Thy stars mean hope and home to the stranger Thy stripes mean life and liber-ty for all See the boys pass on See the big field gun Pro-tection's the secret of the free Youth and age pass by Long live our song, "My Country tis of Thee"

110494

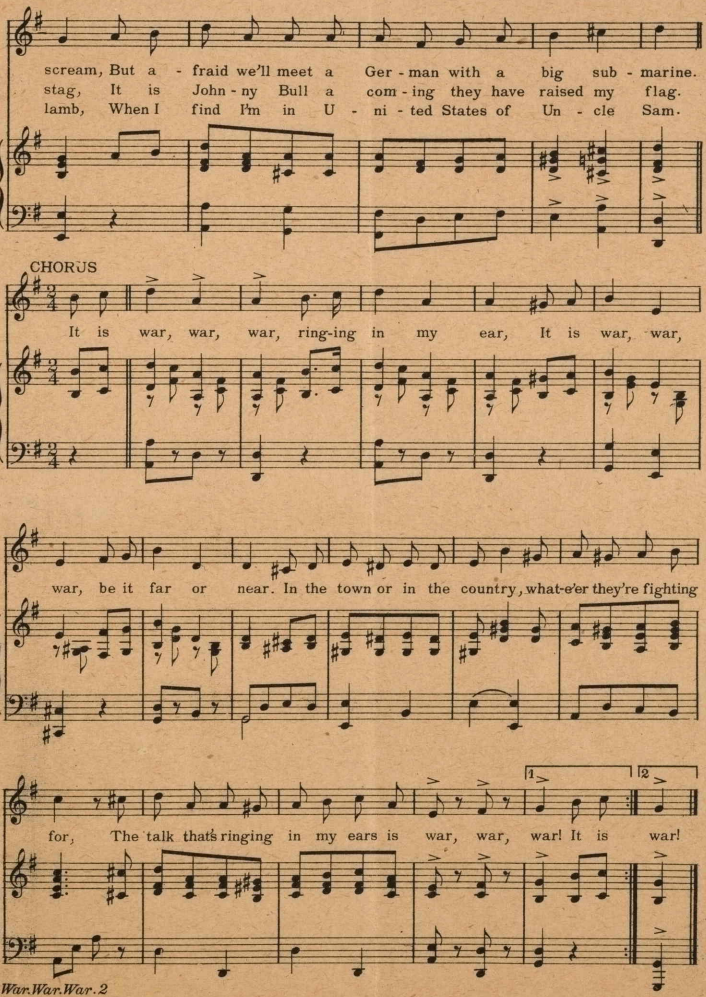
JUN 25 1917

The Seat In The Tree

By GERTRUDE G. BOUSLOUGH.



Copyright, MCMXVII by Gertrude G. Bouslough, Shabbona, Ill.
For additional copies or other information of above song address owner of copyright.



scream, But a - fraid we'll meet a Ger - man with a big sub - marine.
stag, It is John - ny Bull a com - ing they have raised my flag.
lamb, When I find I'm in U - ni - ted States of Un - cle Sam.
CHORUS
It is war, war, war, ring-ing in my ear, It is war, war, war, be it far or near. In the town or in the country, what-e'er they're fighting for, The talk that's ringing in my ears is war, war, war! It is war!
1
2