©CLE449878
MAY 19 1919

The Flying Corps Of the U.S.A.

Lyric by MRS. ROBERT PURCELL

Music by
F. H. THOMAS
AND
LEW. HALLING.

Respectfully Dedicated to LIEUT. BOB. PURCELL.

★

Published by BERNARD-SCHEIB & Co.
ROCHESTER, N.Y.

M1646
T

Respectfully dedicated to Lieut. Bob Purcell.

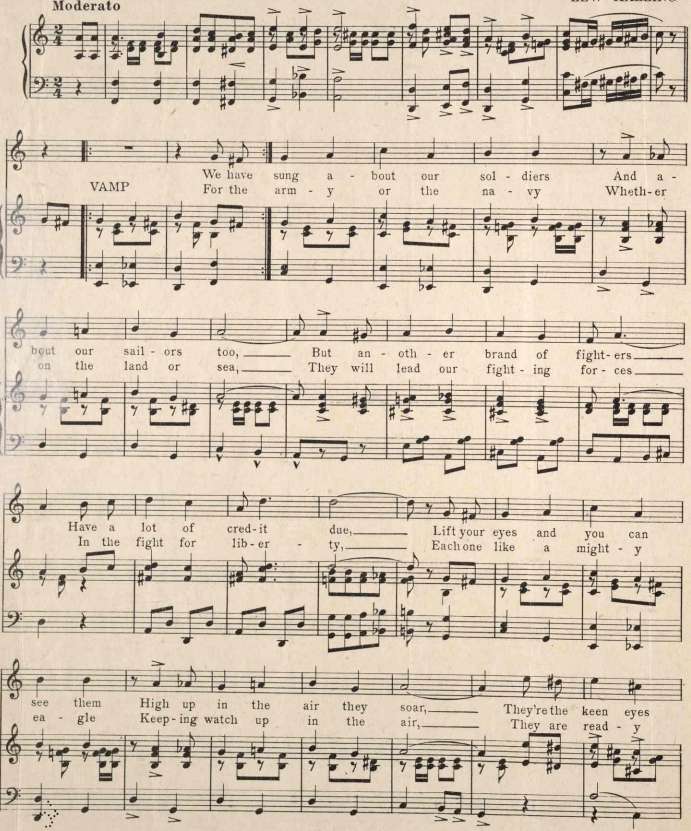
The Flying Corps Of The U.S.A.

Words by
Mrs. ROBERT PURCELL

Music by
F. H. THOMAS &
LEW HALLING

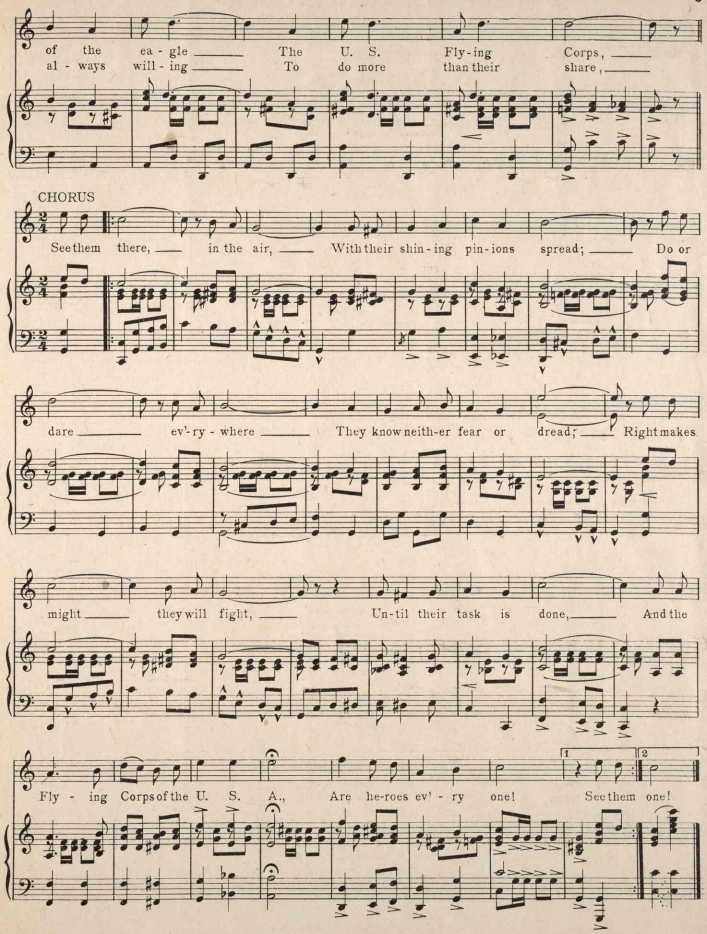
INTRO.

Moderato



Copyright MCMXIX by Bernard, Scheib and Co.
Beckley Bldg., Rochester, N.Y.

All Rights Reserved.



of the ea - gle The U. S. Fly-ing Corps,
al - ways will - ing To do more than their share,
CHORUS
See them there, in the air, With their shin-ing pin-ions spread; Do or dare ev'-ry - where They know neith-er fear or dread; Right makes might they will fight, Un-til their task is done, And the Fly - ing Corps of the U. S. A., Are he-roes ev' - ry one! See them one!
1
2

Make it a Habit! Ask your Dealer for

BERNARD, SCHEIB & COMPANY'S

latest Publications -"Songs that make you Sing"

MY DADDY'S LAID HIS UNIFORM AWAY

By PUTNAM CASH and HALLING.

The Sensational "Kiddy Ballad"—A Big Hit Everywhere

This Is The Fox Trot Everybody's Raving About

FOLLOW ME TO ARABY

By SCHEIB, CASH and HALLING

Talk About You "Jazz"

I'LL BE BACK

(So keep The Lovelight Shining)

By LAZURUS and CASH

"A Syncopated Southern Sway Direct From Jazzland"

A Great Tribute In Song

SWEET SALVATION LASSIE

By AGNES V. DENISON

A Gem of a Lyric—A Wonderful Melody

The Song That Took First Prize In A Songwriters Contest

MR. WILSON WE ARE GRATEFUL TO YOU

By RAY WILKINSON

A Rollicking March Song Full of "Pep" and a "Punch" in Every Line

---

Sent postpaid upon receipt of 15 cents or two for 25c.

BERNARD, SCHEIB & COMPANY

Music Publishers

Beckley Building, Rochester, N. Y.

Irresistible Melodies

46566