APR 21 1919

THE SENTINEL OF THE MARNE

Words and Music
by Senator M.C. Thornton
composer of
Will You Say To My Dear Mammy

SUNG BY
Louise C. Blanchard

PUBLISHED BY M.C. THORNTON
NEW ALBANY, IND.

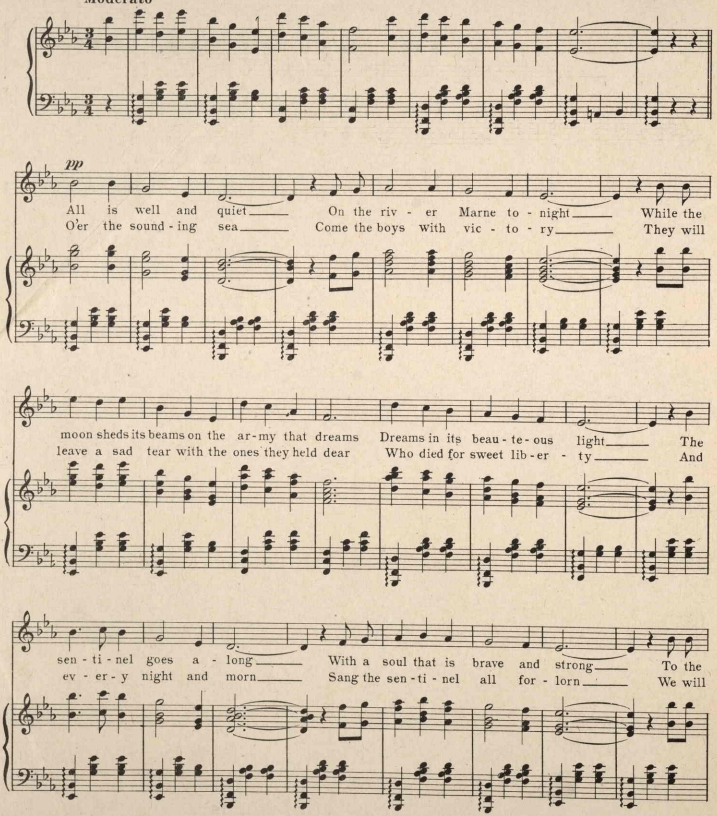
©CLE450479

THE SENTINEL OF THE MARNE

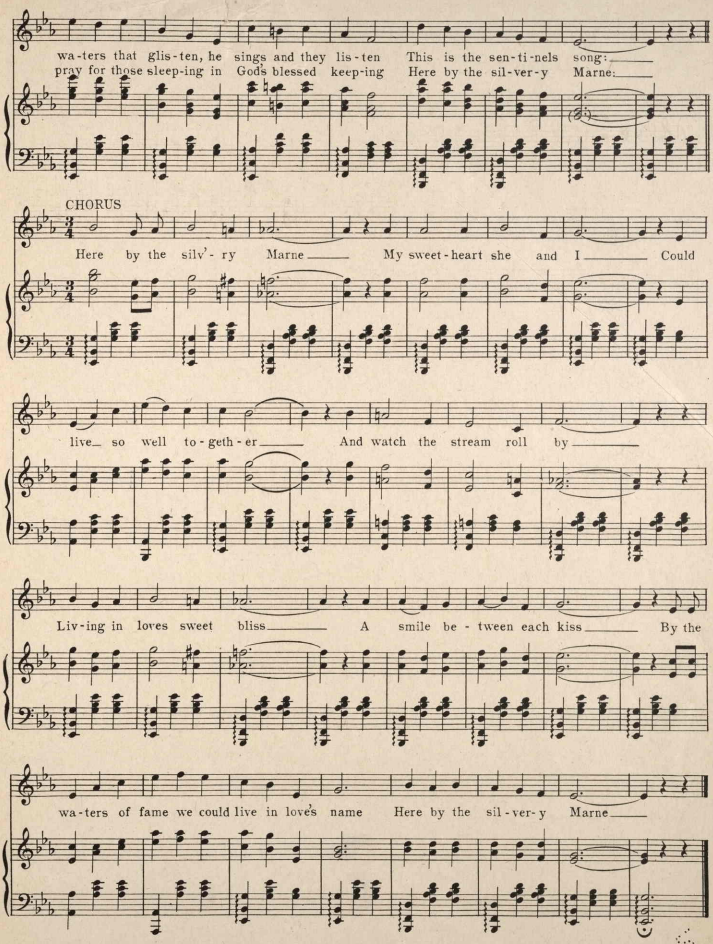
SENATOR M. C. THORNTON

Wm REHNOR
ERMA LYONS

Moderato



Copyright MCMXIX by Hon. M. C. Thornton. Thornton Pub. Co., Elsby Building
New Albany, Ind.



wa-ters that glis-ten, he sings and they lis-ten This is the sen-ti-nels song:
pray for those sleep-ing in God's blessed keep-ing Here by the sil-ver-y Marne:
CHORUS
Here by the silv'-ry Marne My sweet-heart she and I Could live so well to-geth-er And watch the stream roll by Liv-ing in loves sweet bliss A smile be-tween each kiss By the wa-ters of fame we could live in love's name Here by the sil-ver-y Marne

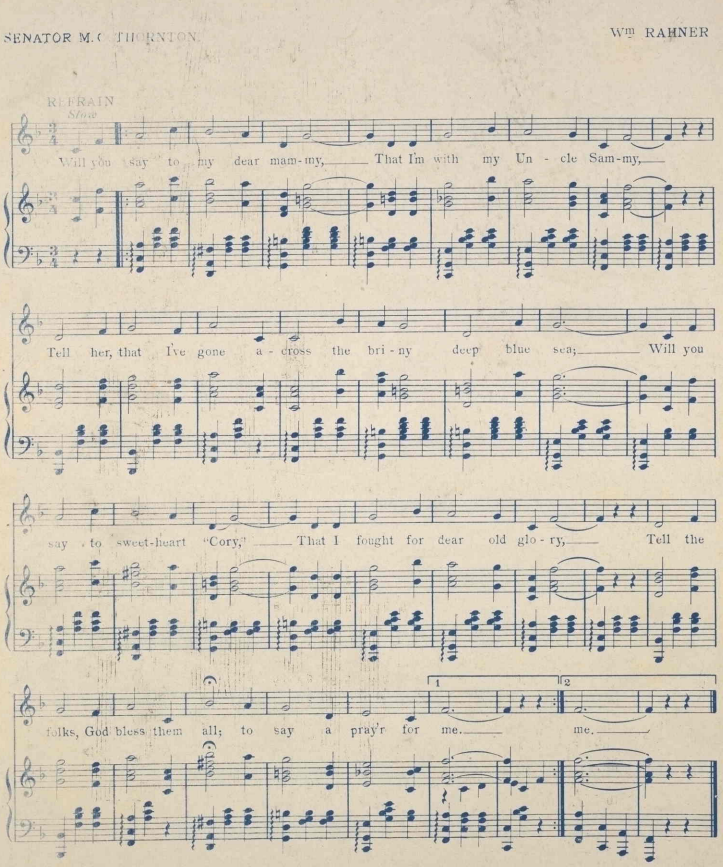
Will You Say To My Dear Mammy

SENATOR M.C. THORNTON. Wm RAHNER



456944

Copyright MCMXVIII by Hon. M. C. Thornton.
Thornton Pub. Co. Elsby Bldg. New Albany, Ind.