

SEP 27 1916

DE331280

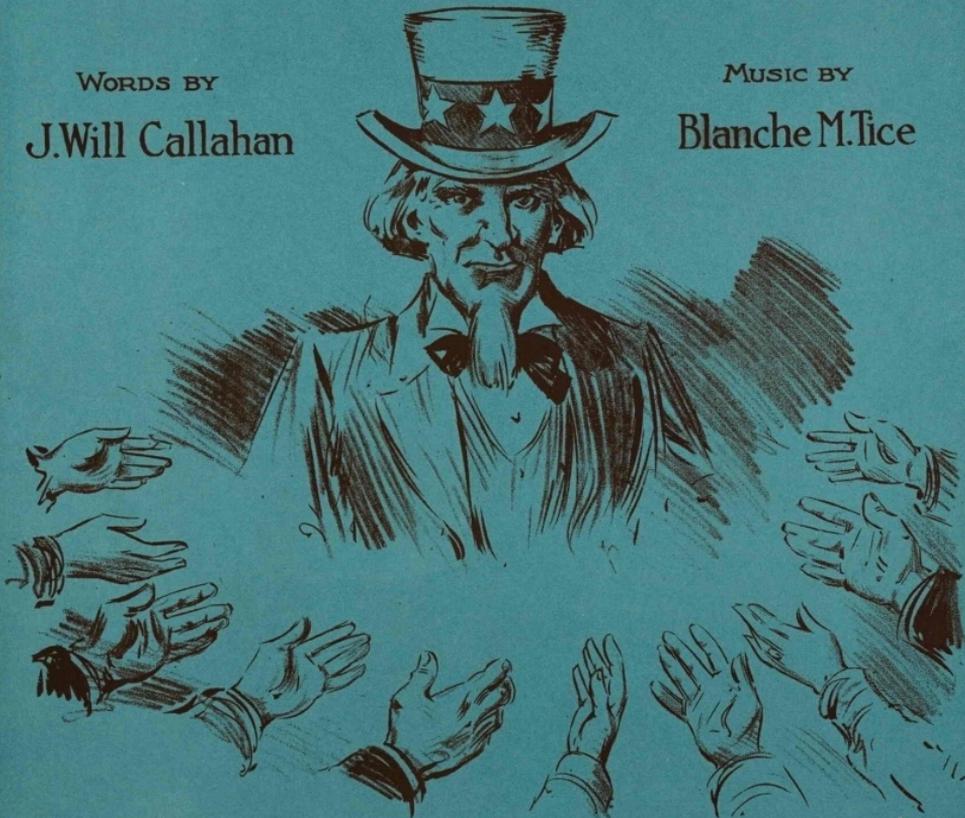

ARE YOU LENDING A HAND TO YANKEE LAND?

WORDS BY

J. Will Callahan

MUSIC BY

Blanche M. Tice

H1646

T

Blanche M. Tice Music Pub. Co.
Sioux City, Iowa.

ARE YOU LENDING A HAND TO YANKEELAND?

Lyric by
J WILL CALLAHAN

Music by
BLANCHE M TICE

Allegretto Moderato

Far a-way a-cross the o - - Ev - 'ry-thing we love and cher - - cean He - roes fight for you and me, Brav - ing all with true do - ish, Ev - 'ry bless-ing, great or small, Ev - en home it-self would vo - tion, Dy - ing for lib - er - ty; While the per - ish If once the flag should fall; Ask your - flag they are de - fend - ing, Let me ask of you self each night and morn - ing When you kneel to pray,

Copyright MCMXVIII, by Blanche M. Tice Music Pub. Co., Sioux City, Ia.

Interaction 1 Copyright Secured

All Rights Reserved

If a help-ing hand you're lend - ing, And do - ing what you can do,
"Have I heard my coun-try's warn - ing, And heed - ed in ev - 'ry way?"

CHORUS

Are you lend - ing a hand to Yan-kee - land, The coun - try that gave you birth? Are you show-ing that you are staunch and true, And prov-ing your hon - est worth? Are you stand-ing the test, and do - ing your best Just like all the rest from East to the West? Are you lend - ing a hand to Yan - kee - land,

The grand - est of lands on earth? Are you earth?

Are You Lending A Hand To Yan-kee-land? 4

