MILDRED TOOMBS

Marcia

Tommy Jones was a fine lit-tle lad. He said: "Good-bye" to his mother and dad. He Wel- lot a Tom-mie's com-pany did the job; They've made the hearts of A-mer-i-ca thro; They've said: "I'm go-ing on the fields of France, Where the hordes of wick-ed Hun-ns ad-vance!" He made all France bow down to them, And Kai-ser Bill, what did they do to him? They've joined a com-pan-y of kha-ki lads, They dropped all fri-vol-i-ties and fads, They've made him say that Gott, not me has ruled the earth and made her free, done just what they said as they'd do, They've beat the Ger-mans thru and thru, They've saved Old Glo-ry as they said, They've kept her wav-ing o'er their head, And turned the Kai-ser wrong side out, And now this hap-py song they shout: now they're ver-y glad to say They're com-ing back to U. S. A.

CHORUS

Hoo - ray! Hoo - ray! Hoo ray! We're com - ing home a - gain. Hoo - ray! Hoo - ray! Back home in the U. S. A., And nev - er - more to roam to roam; We're com - ing home, we're com - ing home, And we'll be a sing - ing a cheer - y song, When we get there. Hoo - ray! Hoo - ray! We're glad, we're glad, to say We'll nev - er, nev - er de - lay, de - lay Till we get back, We won't be back till we get back Back home in the good old U. S. A.
