The Girl

bu-glesounds the call to arms; It's heard throughout the land... From mansions grand to hum-ble farms Each on your sword's brave Captains all, We're with you ev'-ry son... An-toc-ra-cy at last must fall, We'll man will take a hand... To-day I saw a pic-ture, in my mind it lin-gers yet... Tho' fight till vic-tor-ys won... For three long years we've wait-ed till our hearts can stand no more... We're years may come and years may go, this scene I'll not for-get... I saw a thousand Yank-ee boys march com-ing now ten mil-lion strong, You'll hear our can-non roar... With Tommy At-kins by our side, We'll by, a might-y throng... And as they pass'd they loud-ly sang this song... make old Eur-ope ring... The Al-lied sold-er's all will proud-ly sing.
