then the Yan- kee fight- ers sailed to France a- cross the sea, — And Fritz then found he could not match a fight- ing kah- ki lad, — And chased the Huns be- yond the Rhine back in- to Ger- man- y. — When if he chanced to meet one he was sure to cry "Kame- rad." — And Un- cle Sam he went to war, to win it had to be, — And now the war is ov- er and our boys will soon be here. — They

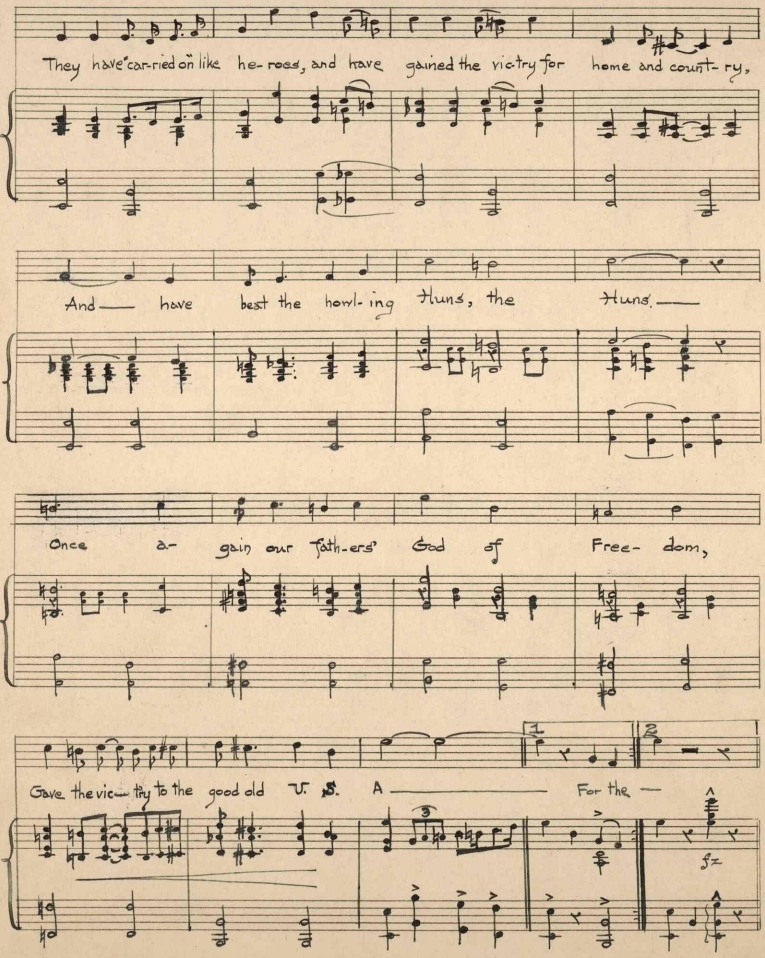
Refrain-Vic-to-ry is with the Yan- kee boys of our Free-dom Land, now great and grand. The f.f boys have won the fight for right, and now Lib-er- ty shall smile on ev- 'ry land. So give the cred-it to the men who fought with might- y hand, To our fath— ers, and our sons, and all of our sweet- hearts,



They have car-ried on like he-roes, and have gained the vic-try for home and coun-try.
And have best the howl-ing Huns, the Huns.
Once a-gain our Fath-ers' God of Free-dom, Gave the vic-try to the good old U. S. A For the
