MAY 22 1918 ©CLE 226012

The Greatest Mother in the World.

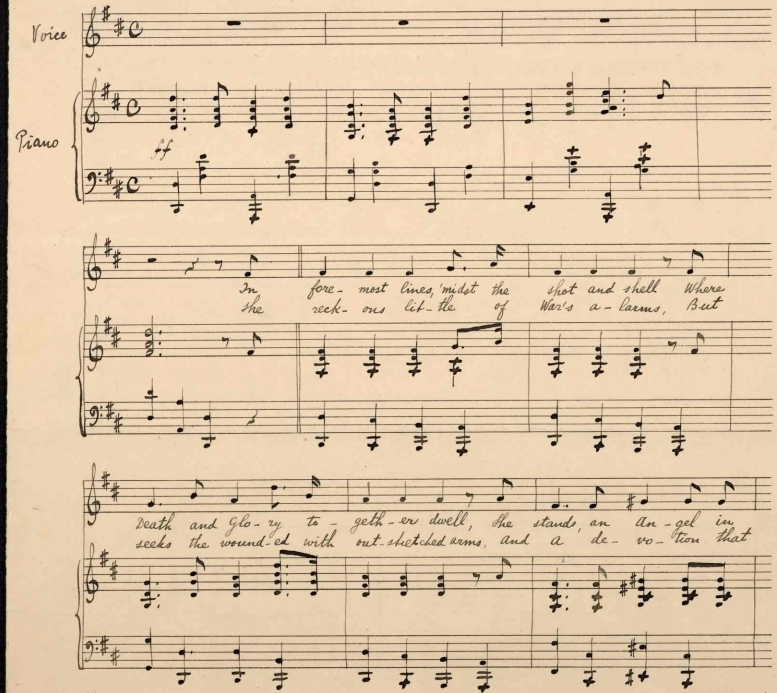
Red Cross Campaign Song.

Dedicated by the Palais Royal to the Allied Theatrical and Motion Picture Team.

William Fox Chairman.

Lyrics by John Murray Anderson. Music by Henri Tissenbroek.

With broad swinging rhythm.



G S NY No. 10

M1646
.T

all but name, seek-ing for noth-ing of rank or fame. Her beau-ti-fies the life She— lives and the death she dies.

mis-sion — on-ly to bring re-lief; To ass-uage suff'ring and Bound-less her Mer-cy— Her on-ly creed To do her Du-ty when sol-ace grief. To feed the hun-gry; soothe the dis-tressed, and e'er the need. Her Ar-mies bear neith-er shield nor sword But

Chorus

lead the He-ro to peace-ful rest. Firm in the fight for march as Champ-ions— of the Lord.

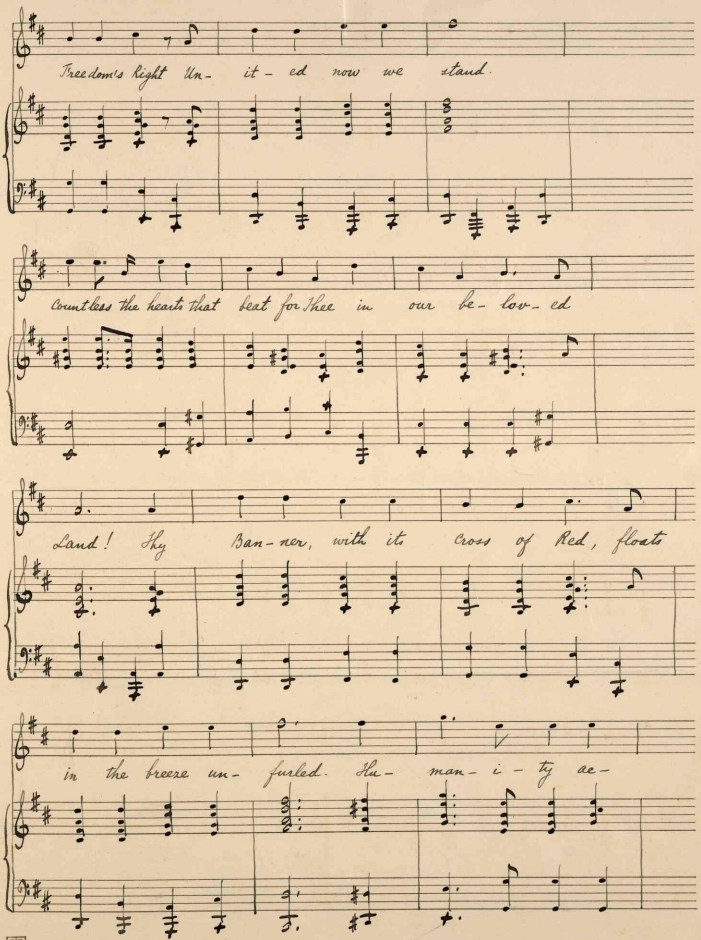
rall.

f — ff Triumphantly



Freedom's Right Un- it - ed now we stand
Countless the hearts that beat for Thee in our be- lov- ed Land! Thy Ban- ner, with its Cross of Red, floats in the breeze un- furled. Hu- man- i - ty ac-

431947