NOV 12 1917
©CE413262

Dedicated to the Red Cross.

Three Cheers for the Red Cross

Song and Chorus

Words by Maude La Tremoille-Wells

Music by George Lowell Tracy

Published by
MRS. MAUDE LA TREMOILLE-WELLS
BOSTON – MASS.

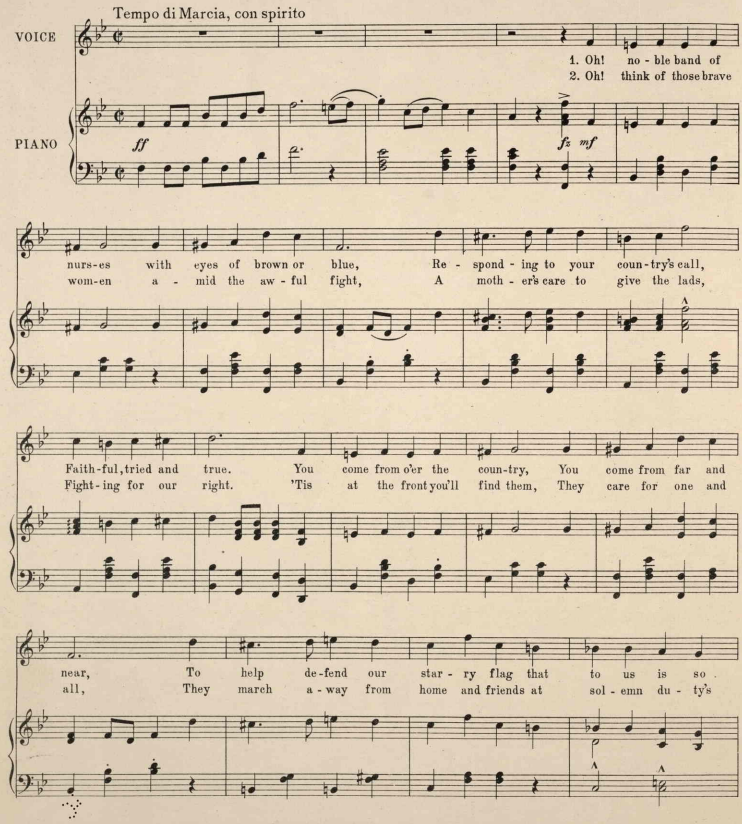
M1646

THREE CHEERS FOR THE RED CROSS

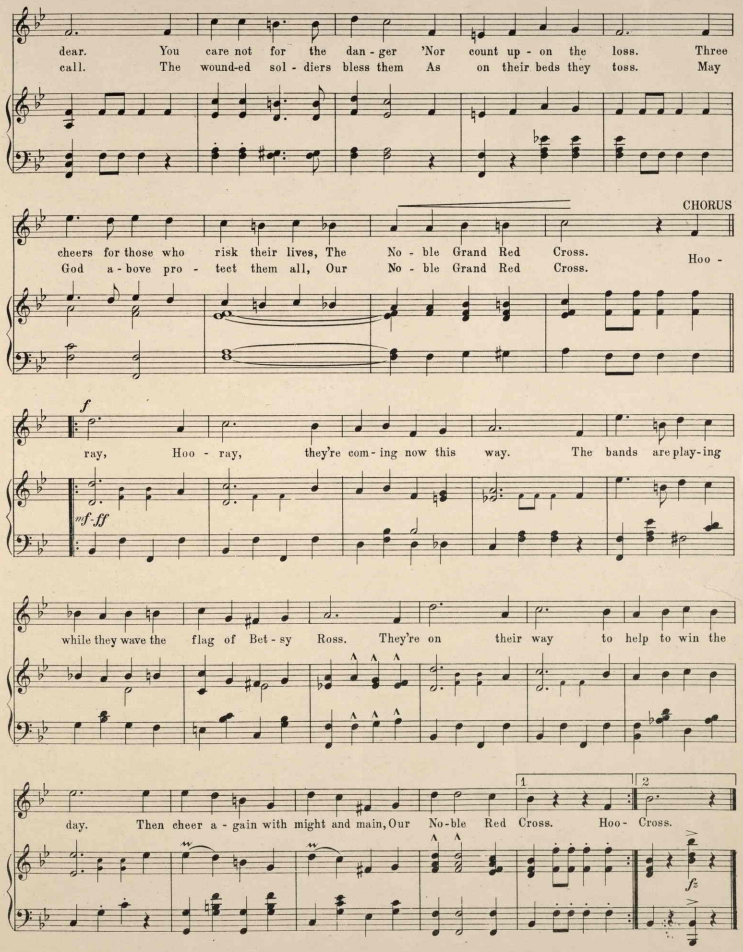
Song and Chorus

Words by
MAUDE LA TREMOILLE-WELLS

Music by
GEORGE LOWELL TRACY



Copyright, 1917, by Maude La Tremoille-Wells



dear. You care not for the dan - ger 'Nor count up - on the loss. Three call. The wound-ed sol - diers bless them As on their beds they toss. May CHORUS
cheers for those who risk their lives, The No - ble Grand Red Cross.
God a - bove pro - tect them all, Our No - ble Grand Red Cross.
Hoo - f ray, Hoo - ray, they're com - ing now this way. The bands are play-ing mf - ff while they wave the flag of Bet - sy Ross. They're on their way to help to win the 1
2
day. Then cheer a - gain with might and main, Our No - ble Red Cross. Hoo - Cross.
fz

419504