CHORUS: Now - left, right, left, right, left - step out!
Through mud or dust, through rain or snow;
For legs are strong and hearts are stout,
As on our pleasure-trip we go.

1st Verse: In foreign lands we want to see,
The sights the movies show,
And fly round, all expenses free,
A bonser time, you know.
We'd also like a change of food
With wines and dainties rare;
And chum with comrades brave and good,
And all their dangers share.

CHORUS:

2nd Verse: The Frenchies soon we hope to greet -
Allies both staunch and true -
And when the Fritzes we shall meet,
We'll give them what's their due.
And later o'er the Rhine we'll cross
To view the castles there;
And in Bochelend we'll play the boss,
And homewards then repair.
