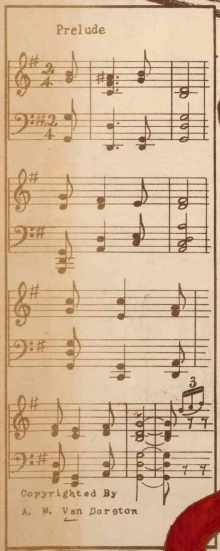
©CLE432924 R

OCT 10 1918

FORGING THE WAY TO BERLIN



H1646
V

Forging the Way to Berlin

Words and Music by A.W. VAN DORSTON

VIM, March time

ff

Violin

Five mil-lion strong, We're mov-ing on, Where can - nons boom and re - coil, We're march-ing on, With fife and drum, The French and the Yank - ee born-Soprano Dear Un - cle Sam, And ev - ry man, Is do - ing all each one can,

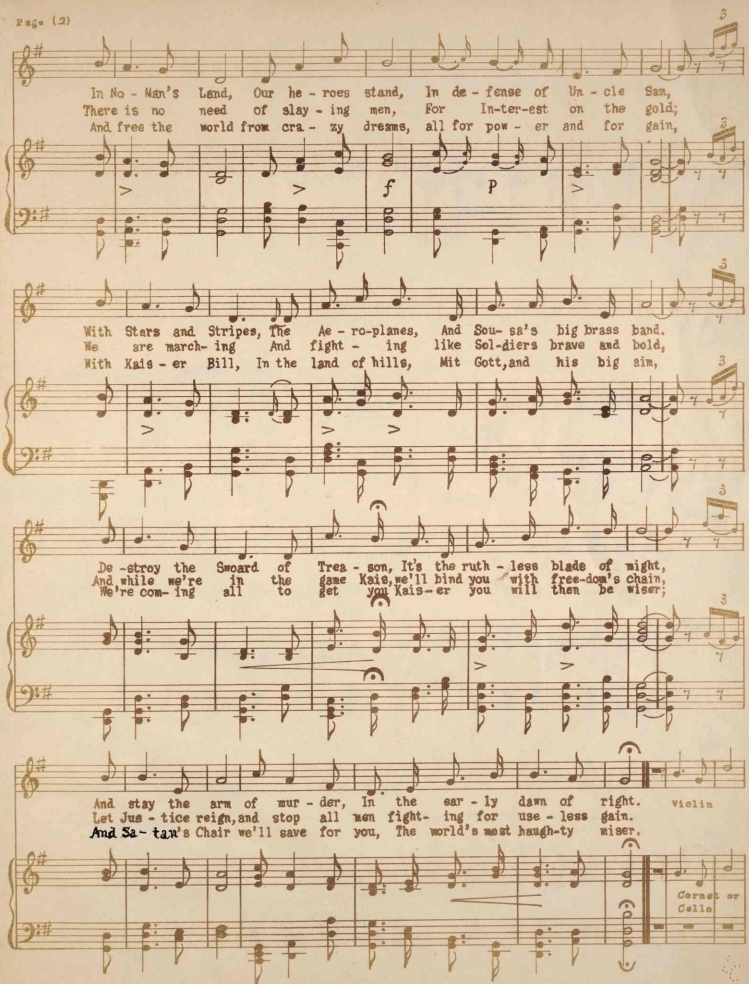
mf

In ships of steel, And wood - en keels, To trench- es on French soil.
Thru No - Man's Land, With play - ing Band, The Bu - gle calls and horn.
To change the plans of Sa - tan's Clan for all and ev - ry man,

Copyrighted By
A. W. Van Dorston, M. E. V. D. 1918.



In No - Man's Land, Our he - roes stand, In de - fense of Un - cle Sam,
There is no need of slay - ing men, For In-ter-est on the gold;
And free the world from cra - zy dreams, all for pow - er and for gain,
f
p
With Stars and Stripes, The Ae - ro-planes, And Sou- sa's big brass band.
We are march- ing And fight - ing like Sol-diers brave and bold,
With Kais - er Bill, In the land of hills, Mit Gott,and his big aim, De -stroy the Sword of Trea - son, It's the ruth - less blade of might,
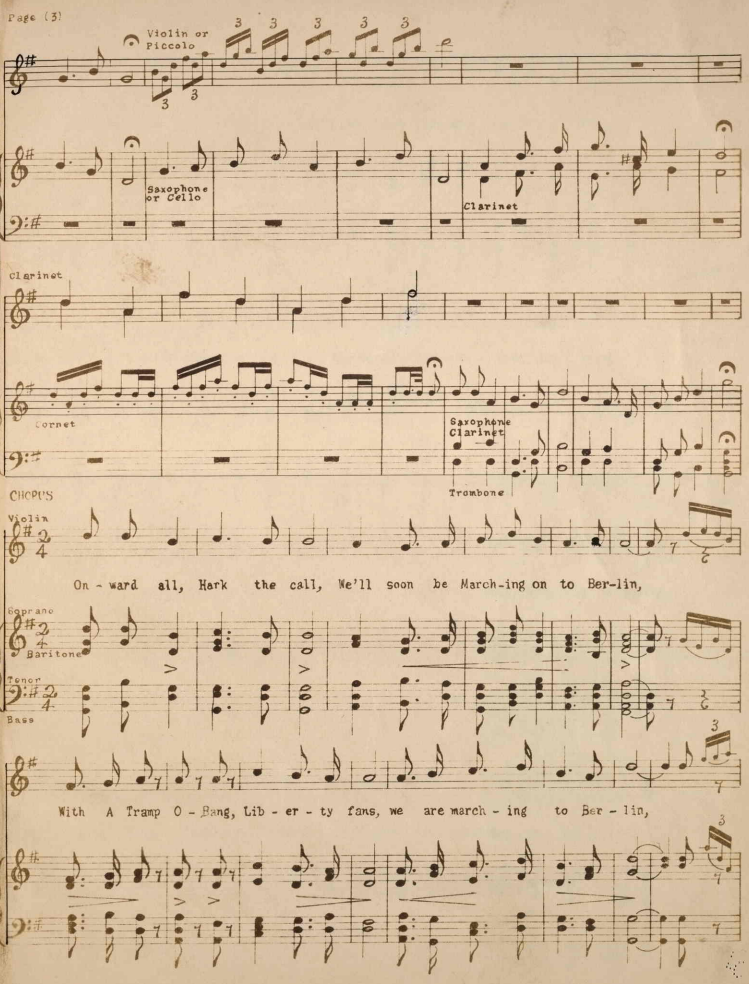
And while we're in the game Kais,we'll bind you with free-dom's chain,
We're com- ing all to get you Kais - er you will then be wiser;
And stay the arm of mur - der, In the ear - ly dawn of right.
Let Jus - tice reign,and stop all men fight- ing for use - less gain.
And Sa - tan's Chair we'll save for you, The world's most haugh-ty miser.
Violin
Cornet or Cello



Violin or Piccolo
Saxophone or Cello
Clarinet
Clarinet
Cornet
Saxophone Clarinet
Trombone
CHORUS
Violin
On - ward all, Hark the call, We'll soon be March-ing on to Ber-lin, Soprano
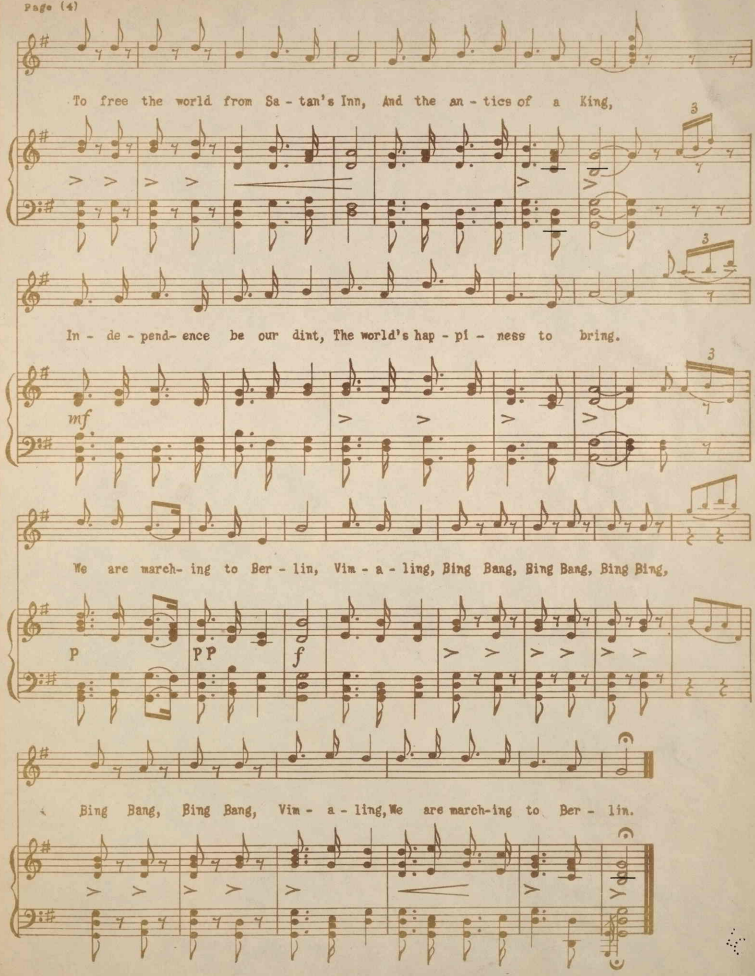
Baritone
Tenor
Bass
With A Tramp O - Bang, Lib - er - ty fans, we are march - ing to Ber - lin,



To free the world from Sa - tan's Inn, And the an - tics of a King,
In - de - pend- ence be our dint, The world's hap - pi - ness to bring.
mf
We are march- ing to Ber - lin, Vim - a - ling, Bing Bang, Bing Bang, Bing Bing, p pp
f
Bing Bang, Bing Bang, Vim - a - ling, We are march-ing to Ber - lin.