

MAY 23 1919

The Arrival of the Twenty-Seventh

By
GEO. A. VAN ZANDT

PUBLISHED BY Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

THE ARRIVAL OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH

GEO. A. VAN ZANDT

Marcha

f

Our hearts did ache to see them go off to the for - eign land; It Cleaning up for Kai - ser Bill was fun for all the kha - ki clads; They

p was their du - ty to the U. S. A., and the might - y Un - cle Sam, But rushed right in, were sure to win a - gainst the Fritz - y lads, And now as they are homeward bound with vic - to - ry in the air, We will win they did, it was their bid to clip the Kai - ser's wing; Now do our best to greet our guest and wel - come them ev' - ry - where.

 as they near the U. S. pier we'll all be - gin to sing.

CHORUS

Hip! Hip! Hoo - ray! The Twen - ty Sev - enth will be with us to - day, mp-f

We will wel - come them with out - stretched arms to the good old U. S. A.; Now

Gen - e - ral O' Ry - an, you sure did fine with our boys o - ver there, So here's to you our gra - ti - tude, we're proud, oh boy, we're proud of you. proud, oh boy, we're proud of you.

rit.

460303