(MARCH SONG)

Marziale

Aft-er the war is ov - er, Aft-er the war is ov - er Dire
Aft-er the war is ov - er

Aft-er the fighting's past, Un - i - ver - sal Peace comes A cen - tu - ry to last. No pun - ish - ment is due The Kai - ser and his min - ions, And the Crown Prince, too. No Pro - spe - ri - ty'll come a - pace; No fur - ther world do - min - ion By the ac - curs - ed race; No more Hoh - en - zoll - erns, No more Hapsburg rule, No more Turkish mas - sa - cres, No pen - al - ty's severe e - nough To ex - pi - ate their crime; No in - dig - ni - ty's suf - fi - cient To slav - ing by weak na - tions, But li - ber - ty for all; No crushing po - pu - la - tions Be - more Kul - tur school, No more cru - ci - fix - ions Ev - er shall be seen, No match the cheek sub - lime Of Kai - ser Wilhelm's claiming Part - ner - ship mit Gott, A neath the ty - rants thrall; No worthless scraps of pa - per In - stead of treaties strong; No more ba-by butchers, No more sub-ma-rine, No more rap-ing wo-men, No ter-ri-ble alliance, Un-war-ran-ted, I wot. So here's to cast-i-ga-tion For nation's pledges broken For coun-try, right or wrong, But truth al-way pre-vail-ing, De-more child-ren torn, No more Ger-man fierceness Ev-er shall be borne.

 Ger-man, Aus-trian, Turk; May re-tri-bu-tion reach them Where-ev-er they may lurk! ceit-ful pacts no more, De-mo-cra-cy tri-um-phant, Man-kind as-sured from war.

CHORUS

So damn the Ger-man Kai-ser, To Hell with ev-ry Hun. Let's push a-long to Ber-lin And keep them on the run. Don't hearken to their peace talk; They're rot-ten to the core. We'll set-tle all peace de-tails Aft-er the war. So war.
