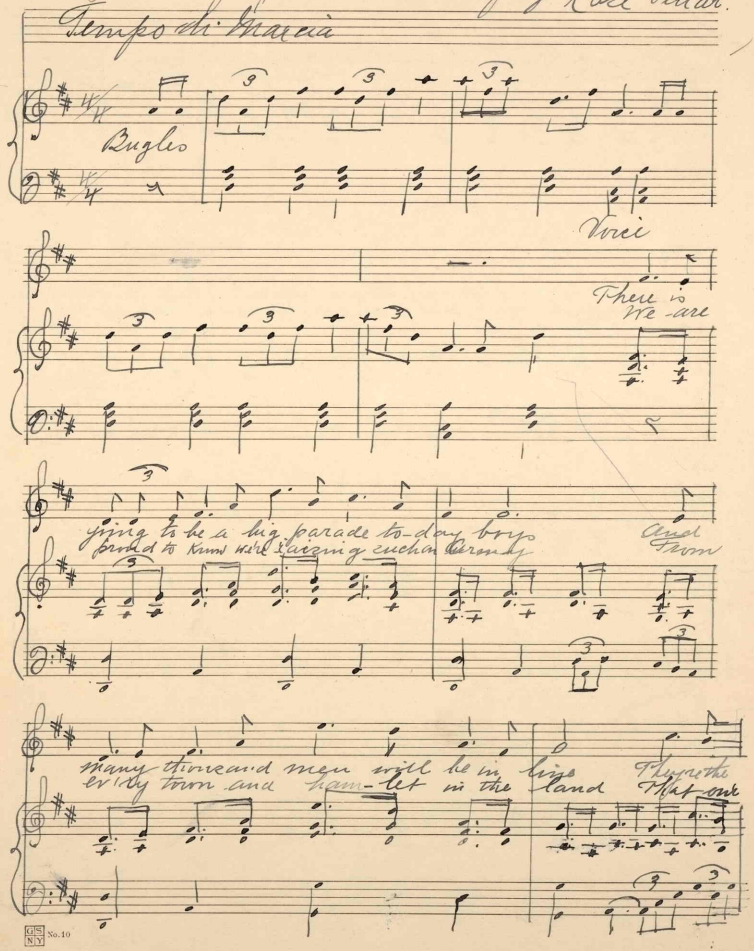
©CLE422403
MAR 14 1918

The Boys of the National Army. Words and Music by Rose Villar.



Tempo di Marcia
Buglio
Voci
There is We are going to be a big parade to-day boys Loud
marked to time with cheering exciting drums Boom
many thousand men will be in line Hip-pip-pip-p

boys of Uncle Sammy's National Army Entirely may be- ever be re- cruited
When they get to France they're going to shine Here's how our Play will ever be staged They dry
Just like giving up the very best that's in them Be willing ever that's when this world is over And every mother's son will do his share all the time for ever - more shall In the
No. 10

fight for Liberty and for glad we had the guts To go Rafe Dinsmore explains it and do multiply You will fried there in the front ranks Over There na-tions might for-ever live in peace Chs.
Here they come The boys are coming Hear the steady thump of feet marching drum-sticks rattle Hear the fifes and drums a-drum-ming Ah! Yes mighty fine that band does play See that line it is just stunning Bravalejo ringing to and fro muddy faces all a-glow Good luck Boys and God be with you and bring you home again some day

425246