The first system of the handwritten musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is a vocal line in G major, starting with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics "sigh And a tho' boys went marching by These roads then she did cry." are written below the notes. The middle staff is the piano accompaniment, also in G major, with a treble clef. The bottom staff is the piano accompaniment in the bass clef, also in G major. The music is written in a simple, clear hand.

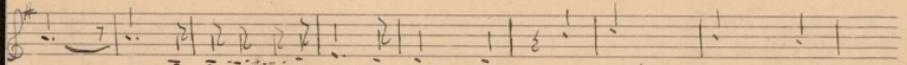

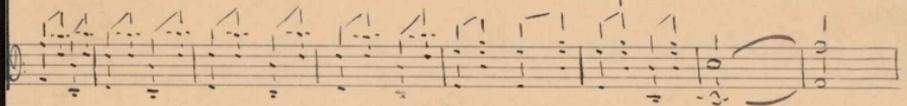

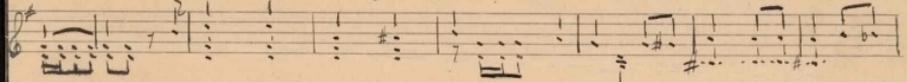

Chorus.

There is a star in the window for you my boy To God's hand that is guiding me

There A Star In The Window
(For You My Boy)

By Kenneth Stewart.

1. One day I was standing at Madison Square
Watching the boys that were going over there.
An old lady stood near with snowy white hair,
Waving and cheering the boys a farewell.
As I looked at her careworn face
I could not help but sigh
And as the boys went marching by
These words then she did cry.

Chorus.

Theres a star in the window for you my boy
Its Gods hand that is guiding you.
The star that shines for righteousness
Is the stars ~~are~~ the Red White and Blue.
Remember I will pray for you.
Gods will must be done.
Theres a star in the widow for you my boy
Till the battle for freedom is won.

2. She was a Christian in actions and ways
She has had trouble and seen better days
Though now old and feeble and lives all alone
She cheers as the boys go marching along
To join the boys that are over there
To fight for Freedoms cause
Her thoughts are with her boys, though gone
But happily she says.
