

MAR 29 1919 CE445905

Here's To Our Aeroplane Heroes So Brave

By
FRANK W. STODGELL

PUBLISHED BY
Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

11626
.5

Here's to Our Aeroplane Heroes So Brave

FRANK W. STODGELL

Allegretto

mf

Our praises we sing of the he-ros of old, And the deeds they have done in the
On - ward and up-ward like a bird in its flight, Like the eag-les they soar far and

p

past; ——— To - day we have he - roes who sail in the sky wide, ——— And man - y brave air - men have ne - ver re - turned

Dar - ing deeds in the air that will last. They sail thru the clouds by
For their count - ry they went up and died. Our sol - diers and sail - ors night and by day, Daring shrap-nel, air pock-ets and fi - re, They we all do ad-mi - re; Some are he - roes on land and the sea; A sought for the foe in the sky, sea or land, Daunt - less he - roes of cheer for our he - roes who fly in the air, And died fight - ing for Chorus.

air we ad - mi - re. Then here's to our aer - o - plane he - roes so brave, They sweet lib - er - ty.

mf

sail in the sky, o - ver land and the wave, They sig - nal and watched our foes from on high, They fought for sweet lib - er - ty up in the sky.

455849