

SEP 23 1918

OUR RED CROSS GIRLS

BY

EDSON D. STOUT

THE EUREKA MUSIC COMPANY,
COLUMBUS, OHIO.

H16 46

.5

4

OUR RED CROSS GIRLS.

(With Alto part complete.)

Lyric and Music by E. D. STOUT.

Moderato.

1. There's a lit - tle sa - cred em - blem gleam - ing through the win - dow - pane, . . . And its
2. Where our brave boys go they fol - low, e - qual dan - ger there they share, . . . From the
3. Though they can - not all go for - ward where the dan - ger is so great, . . . Yet their crim - son rays bring hope and cheer where pain and sor - row reign; . . . In de - foe be - neath the bil - lows and the burst - ing bombs in air; . . . Where the work is no less help - ful to re - store a whole - some state. . . . How our struc - tion's lit - tered path - way and where war has brought its stain, . . . You will poi - son - la - den breez - es come up - on them un - a - ware, . . . Car - ing sol - dier boys re - gard them 'twould be need - less to re - late, . . . We could find re - lief is pres - ent from our Red Cross Girls.

Copyright, MCMXVIII, by E. D. Stout.

 for the sick and wound - ed are our Red Cross Girls.
 hard - ly hope to win with - out our Red Cross Girls.

REFRAIN.

Oh, the hon - or due our girls is more than we can pay them now, . . . So we can mere - ly greet them with rev - er - en - tial bow. When peace at last shall lay her wreath up - on the vic - tor's brow, It will twine a - bout our Red Cross Girls. . . .

