

The Shrine of Liberty

AUG - 5 1918

©RE429229

WORDS BY JAMES A. EATON

MUSIC BY BARCLAY WALKER

PRICE 25¢

James A. Eaton & Co.
PUBLISHERS
224 1/2 N. ALABAMA ST.,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

H1646
.77

The Shrine of Liberty

Words by
JAMES A. EATON

Music by
BURCLAY WALKER

On the glo-ry of the BAN-NER That we May its WHITE de-act our in-trest And May its BLUE and STARS a-bove us As the all so much re-vere, And the his-t'ry of its mak-ing That brings forth a hid-den tear, May it will-ing-ness to care, For the ills and wounds re-ceived by all In the struggle while we're here, Will-ing Heav-ens o-ver head, And with true, steadfast con-vic-tion Where e'er we may be led In the ev-er be the em-blem Of the good, the right, the free, And teach us our du-ty here That hands and hearts so ten-der For Friend or Foe will care, With mer-cy ex-tend-ing, Our pres-ence of our mak-er Ev-'ry act He'll al-ways see, He's al-ways right with us, Where we may plain-ly see, May its RED de-note our blood Which we are will-ing to shed, To pro-mis-sion ev-ry-where, On-ly with the thought of shar-ing In his sor-row his woe, For his ev-er we may be, Nev-er fal-ter nev-er wav-er In your struggle for Right, On-ly teet our cher-ished hearts and homes From the heath-en-vul-tures tread, The heath-en of des-truc-tion And the wel-fare al-ways car-ing, Where ev-er he may go, To help we're al-ways read-y A on-ward-ev-er on-ward, Trust in God and press the fight, With a cer-tain-ty of vic-tory For the

Copyright MCMXVIII by James A. Eaton
2241 N. Alabama St. Indianapolis, Ind.

All Rights Reserved

International Copyright Secured

vul - ture of des - pair Will be our con - stant foes Till OLD GLO - RY'S way - ling there.....
 com - rad - in dis - tress And pass by all his faults While we hold our own in stress..... cause which must be right, Your bless - ings will be treb - led When it's proved that RIGHT is MIGHT.....

REFRAIN

Oh the RED, the WHITE and BLUE..... I'll be ev - er true to you,..... May you en - twine me and en - shrine me In the thoughts most good and true,..... And at last when all is o - ver And I come to view the past..... May your STARS and BLUE a - bove me Di - rect my eyes at last..... To the God who is a - bove us..... With His as - sur - an - ces of rest..... Will ex - tend to me a wel - come To His Shrine where all are blessed.

96

436493