©JE408735
JUL -2 1917

Jay H. Walker

M1646
.W

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 8 –12 lines.

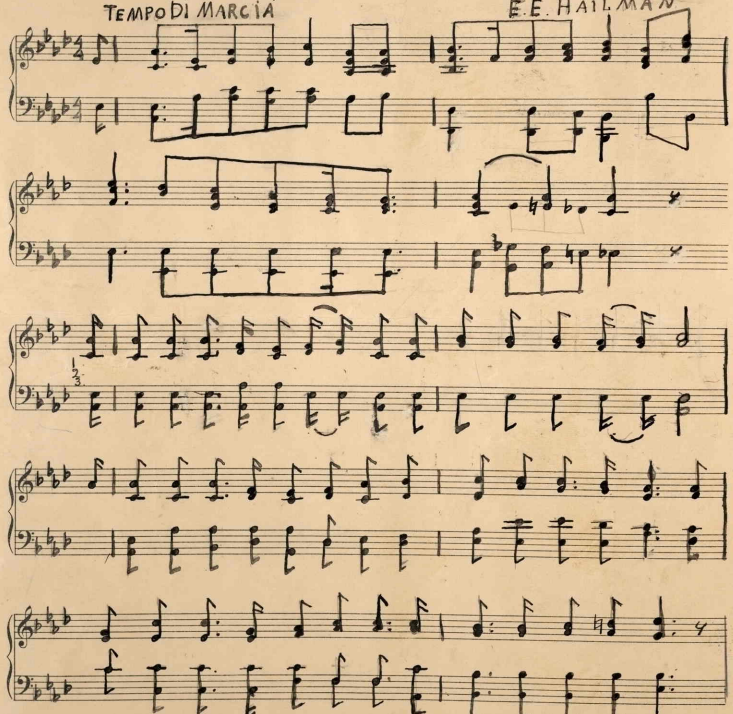
Property of → Jay H. Walker
R#4 Box 145 D.
San Diego Calif.

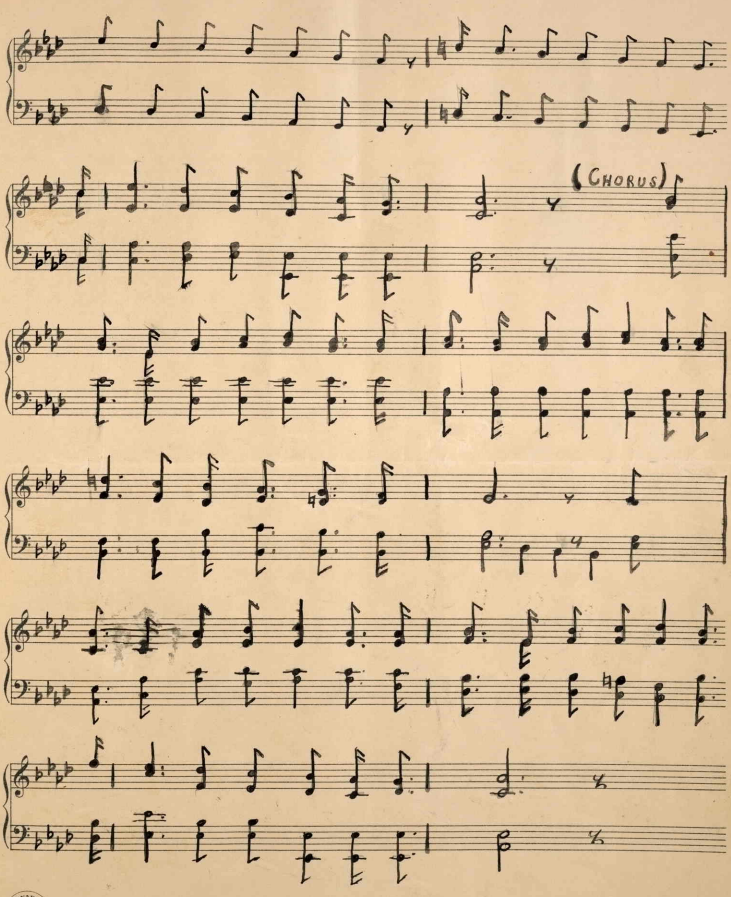
DEMOCRACY AND LIBERTY

WORDS AND MUSIC BY JAY H. WALKER

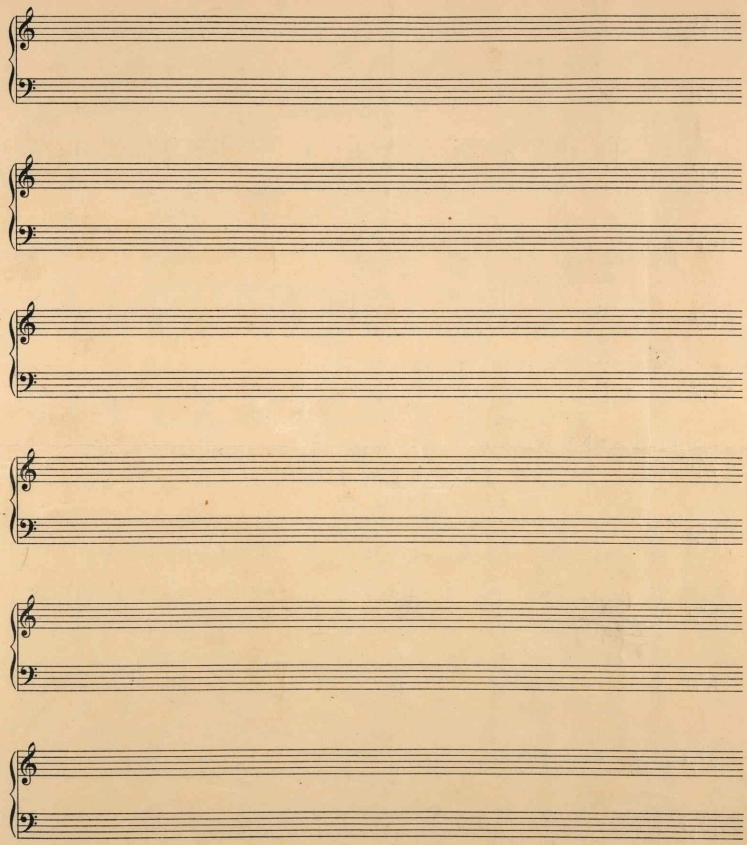
ARRANGED BY E.E. HAILMAN

TEMPO DI MARCIA





(CHORUS)



Property of

JUL -2 1917

Jay H. Walker
4527 33rd. St.
San Diego, Cal.

R #4 Box 145 G.
San Diego Calif

#1

Marching on and on they go, our Yankee Doodle men,
Gathering fron the valleys, hills, the praries, lakes and glens,
No North no South no East no West, one grand democracy,
Hear their feet a drumming, Hurrah! France they're coming
Democracy and Liberty.

#2 We seek no gains by bloody stains, but sacrifice we must,
Our cause is right for God we fight, in him we put our trust
So hand in hand a glorious band, we offer up our all
Hear their feet a drumming; Hurrah! boys they're coming
Democracy and Liberty.

#3 Chains and slavery for all if conquered by this power,
Strike, then strike, ye freemen strike! Strike hard this very hour
Loved mothers, wives and sweethearts dear have answered to the call
Hear our feet a drumming; Hurrah! friends we're coming
Democracy and Liberty.

Chorus:
Ten million freemen tramping, autocracy they're stamping
The World from tyrants shall be free,
Our Uncle's lost his patience, go herald to the nations
Democracy and Liberty.