Allegro Moderato

8

A - cross the wa - ter ma - ny miles from The dawn - ing of that day is draw - ing here A - mid the flam - ing shot and shell, Our no - ble near And anx - ious eyes a - wait to see, Those Yan - kee he - roes stood a fight - ing side by side, for Free - dom's cause they were boys once more come sail - ing up the bay. With flags un - furled they sa - there, So all the na-tions can tell.— And when this war is o'er, And lute, Their God- dess of Lib- er- ty.— For Free- dom's cause they fought, And Peace shall sound her call, Then will our Yan-kee boys all say, We're go- ing World De- moc- ra- cy, They an- swered to their coun- try's call. And have come back to our land, By Old Glo- ry stand, Oh! won't we greet that day.—

back to their land, By Old Glo- ry stand, Oh! how we hail that day.—

CHORUS

When we see our gal- lant lads march down Broad- way Ban- ners wav- ing, children sing- ing,

Ah, so gay, Won't there be re joic. ing on land and sea, When our boys come back from France with Vic - to - ry, Mothers, Fathers, Sweethearts to will all join in,

With the boys when they begin to sing ——— We'll ral - ly a - round the flag boys, We'll ral - ly a - round a - gain boys shout - ing the bat - tle cry of Free - dom.
