Moderato

Till here

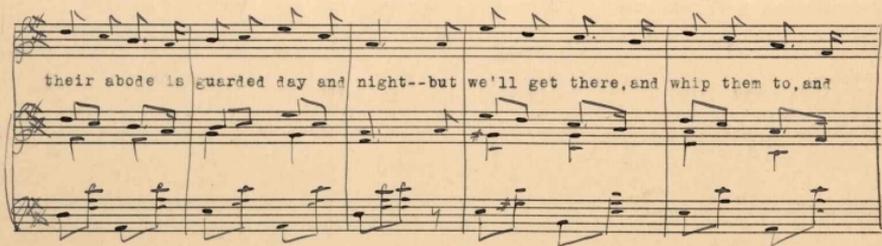

They tell us that the Germans have fortified their shores--with cannon great and ships that wait for us outside their doors-- that every road to their abode is guarded day and night--but we'll get there, and whip them to, and soon put them to flight-- Oh-we'll get there---oh-we'll get there--what do we care---if it takes ten million soldiers-by land and sea and air---our troops will be---in Germany---we ^{will} make them flee---and the Kaiser will be wiser---when we---get---there---oh, we'll get

Ad lib
