©CLE449217
MAY -9 1919

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO THE BOYS OF THE ALLIED CAUSE

SUNG BY MR. DAN BEDDOE

SUNG BY MR. SAM MORRIS

OLD HOME, SWEET HOME

WORDS AND MUSIC

—BY—

GLYNDWR WILLIAMS

Price 50 Cents

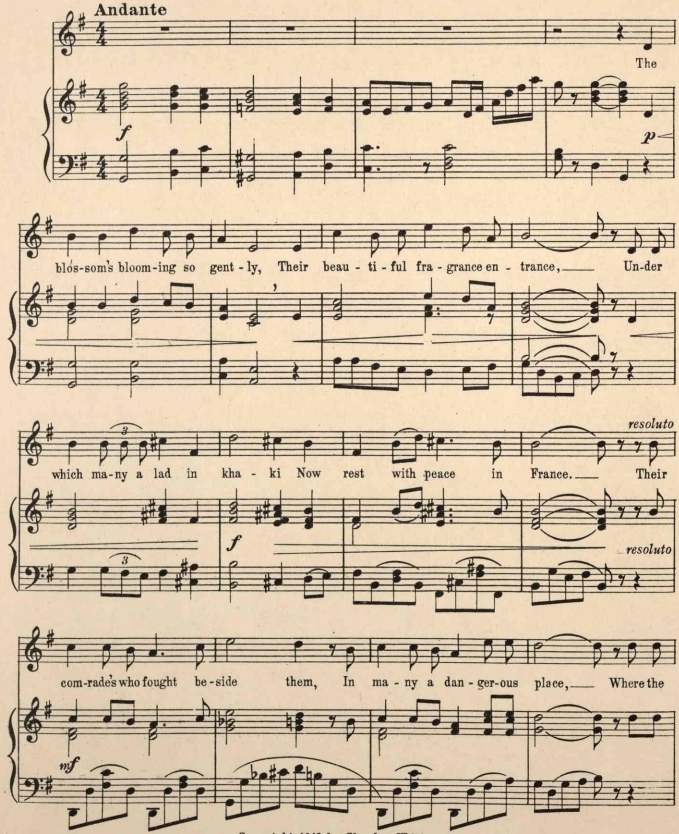
PUBLISHED BY
G. WILLIAMS
380 KELLOGG AVENUE,
COLUMBUS, OHIO.

115
M1646
.W

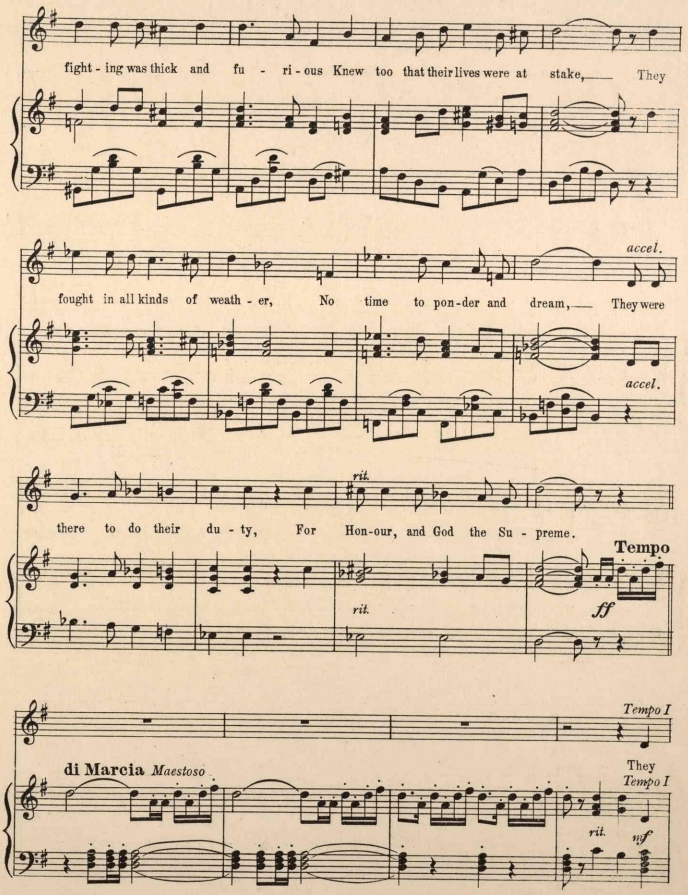
Respectfully dedicated to the Boys of the Allied Cause.

OLD HOME SWEET HOME

By GLYNDWR WILLIAMS



Copyright 1919 by Glyndwr Williams.



fight - ing was thick and fu - ri - ous Knew too that their lives were at stake, They accel.
fought in all kinds of weath - er, No time to pon-der and dream, They were accel.
rit.
there to do their du - ty, For Hon-our, and God the Su - preme.
Tempo
rit.
ff
Tempo I
They
di Marcia Maestoso Tempo I
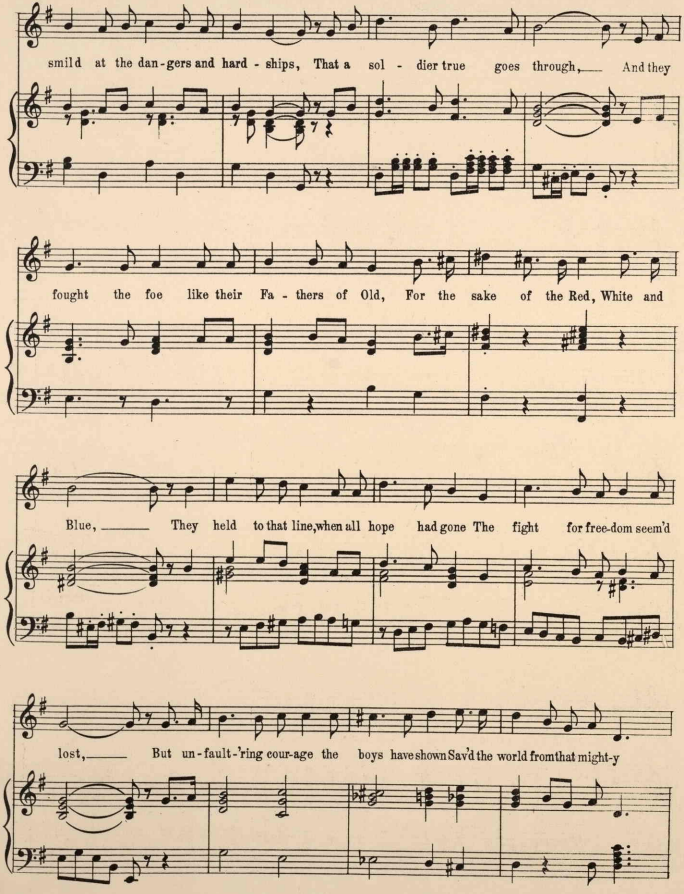
rit.
nf



smild at the dan-gers and hard-ships, That a sol-dier true goes through, And they fought the foe like their Fa-thers of Old, For the sake of the Red, White and Blue, They held to that line, when all hope had gone The fight for free-dom seem'd lost, But un-fault-'ring cour-age the boys have shown Sav'd the world from that might-y

Host, They hurl'd them back and shat-terd their line With vic - to - ry in rall.
sight, The world re-joic'd the cause of right, Tri - umph - ant ov - er might.
rall.
Larghetto (Home Sweet Home)
Now the war is ov - er, And their weap-ons laid down once more, With their dolce
pp Larghetto
fa-ces turn'd to their coun-try, And their thoughts to Old Home Sweet Home.

459096