March, march, brave men and loy-al men, Why my lads don't you stand March, march, the bu-gle is sound-ing, Why don't you hear how the for-ward in or-der! March, march, brave men and val-lant men, drums they are pound-ing! March, march, to the mu-sic that's al-ways true,

Go with the lads who are o-ver the bor-der,
 Vic-try or death for the Red, White, and Blue,

Long may the ea - gle spread, Flut - ter a - bove their head,
So that our name be heard, Hon - or'd both far and wide,

So that our name be fa - mous in sto - ry, — Up and be read - y, lads,
So that no trai - tor will e'er reach our shore, — Up and be read - y, lads,

Fight for the dear old Flag, Fight for your home and A - mer - i - ca's glo - - ry.
Fight for the dear old Flag, Fight for your President and A - mer - i - ca's glo - - ry.
