THE TUSCANIA.

Words and Music by JAMES H. WARRINGTON.

Arr. by Frank C.A. Milano.

The first system of the piano accompaniment features a treble and bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 6/8 time signature. The music consists of chords and melodic lines in both hands, starting with a quarter rest in the bass and a quarter note in the treble.

The first system of the vocal line is written on a single staff with a treble clef, one sharp key signature, and 6/8 time signature. It begins with a quarter rest followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes.

1. As they boarded the good ship Tus-can-la, — Bound far, far out in the sea, — It was
2. The most of our boys were from Michi-gan, — They seem'd to be no-ble and brave, — As they.
3. And now when the war is o-ver, — We pray God we'll always have peace, — Let

The second system of the piano accompaniment continues the harmonic support for the vocal line, maintaining the 6/8 time signature and one sharp key signature.

The second system of the vocal line continues the melody, featuring a mix of eighth and quarter notes.

there by a chance that they nev-er reach'd France And they sank in the deep bri-ny sea, — There were board-ed the ship with their knapsacks and grips, Be-fore she steam'd far, far a-way, — Now all trumpets sound as we are homeward bound, We pray that we will be re-leased, — Now there.

The third system of the piano accompaniment continues the accompaniment for the second system.

The third system of the vocal line continues the melody, ending with a quarter rest.
