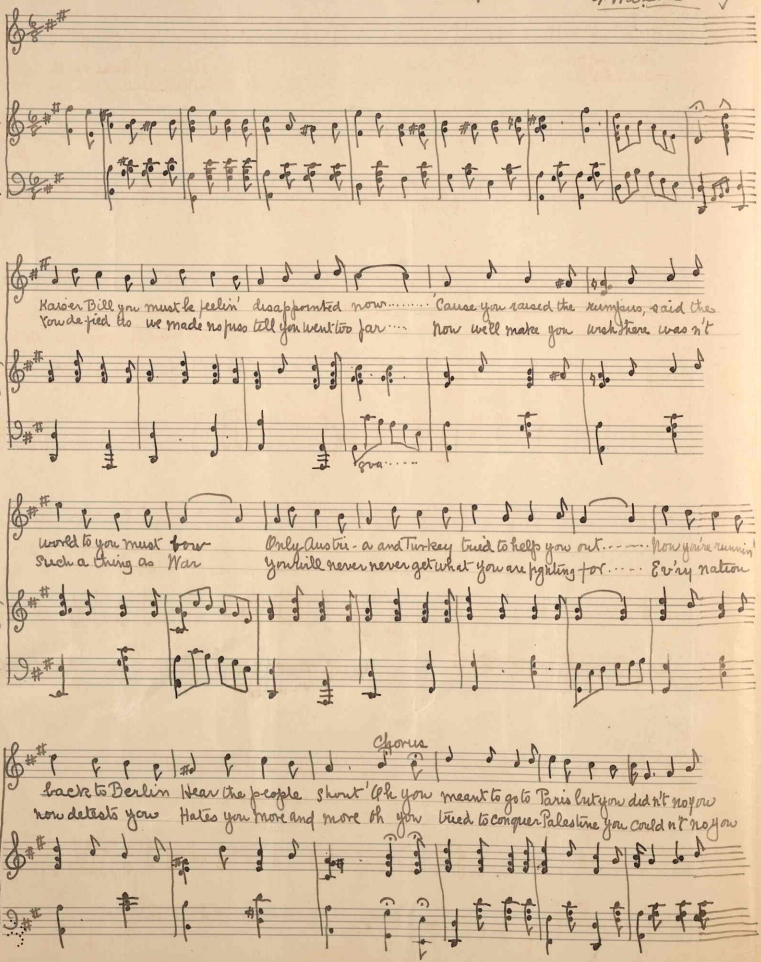
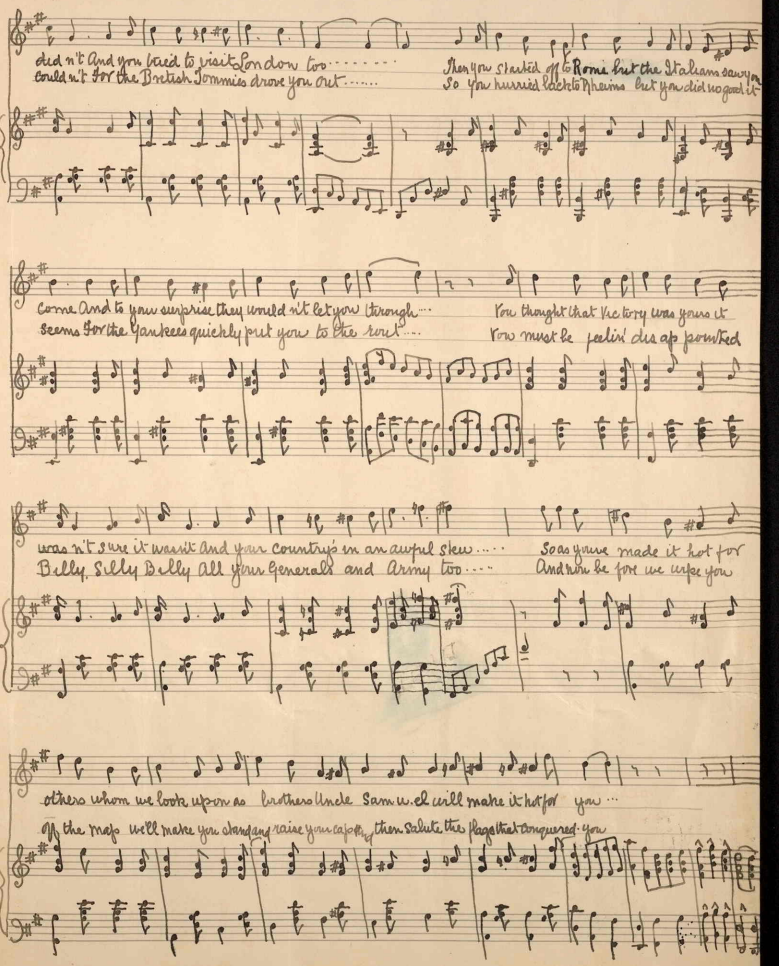
DISAPPOINTED BILL

To His Infernal Majesty the Kaiser

by G. Watson





did n't And you tried to visit London too could n't for the British Tommies drove you out Then you started off to Rome but the Italians saw So you hurried back to Rheims but you did no good it come And to your surprise they would n't let you through seems for the Yankees quickly put you to the rout You thought that victory was yours it You must be feelin' dis ap pointed was n't sure it wasn't And your country's in an awful stew Billy, Silly Billy All your Generals and Army too So as you've made it hot for And now be for we urge you others whom we look upon as brothers Uncle Sam will make it hot for you
Up the map we'll make you stamp raise your caps & then Salute the flag that conquered you
