

AUG -1 1918

★
MOTHERS ★★★ OF ★★★ AMERICA

by
T. P. WHITE

Composer of "For Love of Home and Liberty
The Stars and Stripes of Old Glory
"True Sons of Liberty

GEORGE EDGAR JOHNSON
— MUSIC PUBLISHER — 908 Tenth St Northeast
WASHINGTON, D. C.

M1646
.W

5

MOTHERS OF AMERICA

Words and Music by
T. P. WHITE

INTRO.

Dolce

1. Moth - er of mine whose
2. Oh son of mine for heart is ach - ing whose tears soft - ly and gent - love of free - dom your du - ty takes you o'er ly flow. Your soul so pure so kind so gen - tle the sea. Na - tions in woe a world im - per - illed is torn with suf - fer - ing know, Still thru your grief I in - voke as - sis - tance in their plea, Go with a smile your hear you whis - per his coun - try calls and he must go.

soul in - spired to win for home your flag and me.

CHORUS

For my coun - try its name its ban - ner

I con - se - crate my boy to - day To serve and save our na - tions hon - or and for his safe re - turn pray.

3

Mothers of men, mothers of soldiers
Nobly you give your sons away
You send them forth with pride and blessings,
To fight against a tyrants sway
Liberty calls, you promptly answer
Heaven is smiling when you say.

