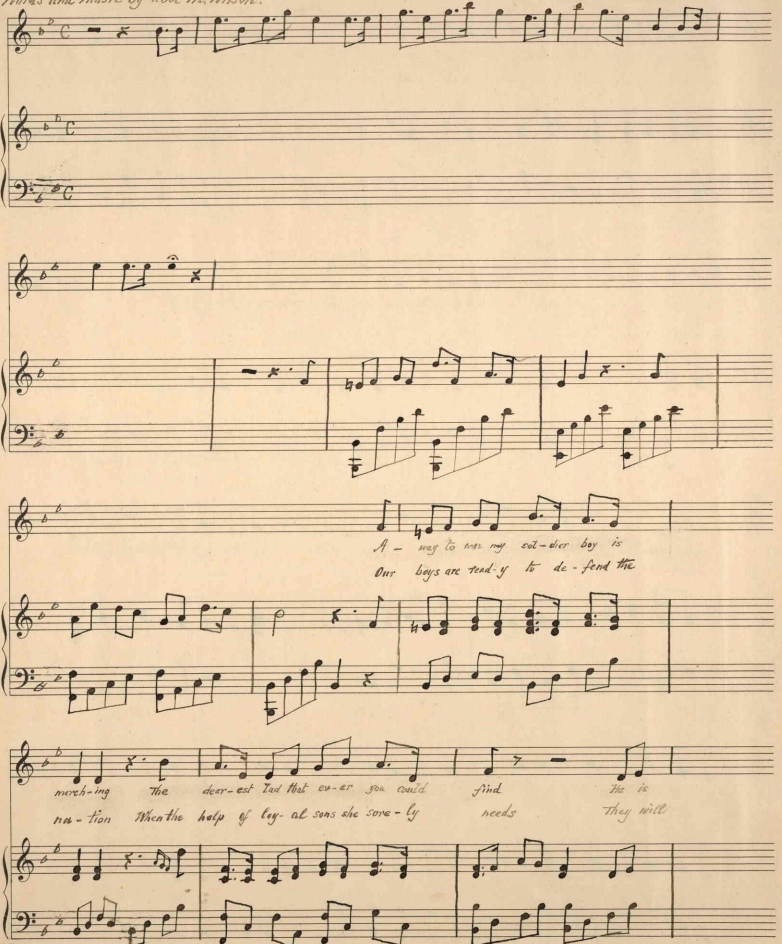
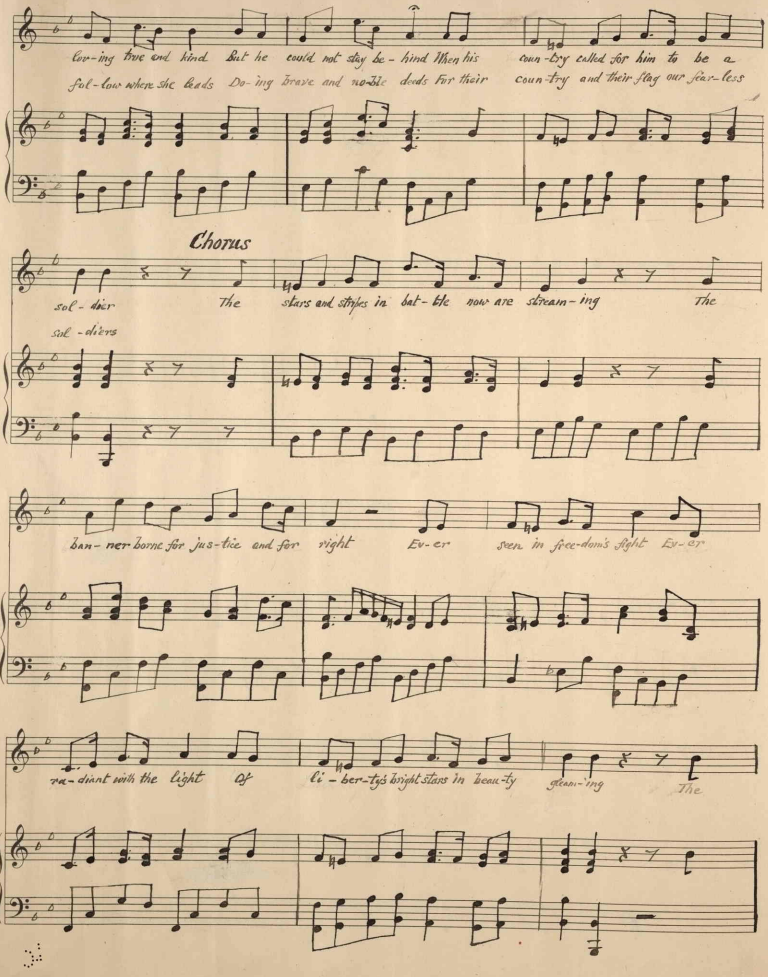
JUN 12 1917
©LE406144

Away to War my Soldier Boy is Marching.

Words and Music by Rose M. Wilson.



ART BRAND
No. 4
H1646
.M



low-ing true and kind But he could not stay be-hind When his coun-try called for him to be a fol-low where she leads Do-ing brave and no-ble deeds For their coun-try and their flag our fear-less Chorus
sol-dier The stars and stripes in bat-tle now are stream-ing The sol-diers
ban-ner borne for jus-tice and for right Ev-er seen in free-dom's flight Ev-er ra-diant with the light Of li-ber-ty's bright stars in beau-ty gleam-ing The time has passed a-way for peace-ful dream-ing Our sol - dier boys from o-ver all the land They will fight for free-dom grand While the mus-ic of the band Tells the tri-umph and the vic-to-ry of our sol - diers.