©CLE441480

JAN 21 1919

I WONT BE IN LINE

(THOUGH THEY'LL LOOK SO FINE)

WHEN THE BOYS COME MARCHING HOME

WORDS BY ANTHONY MARINO
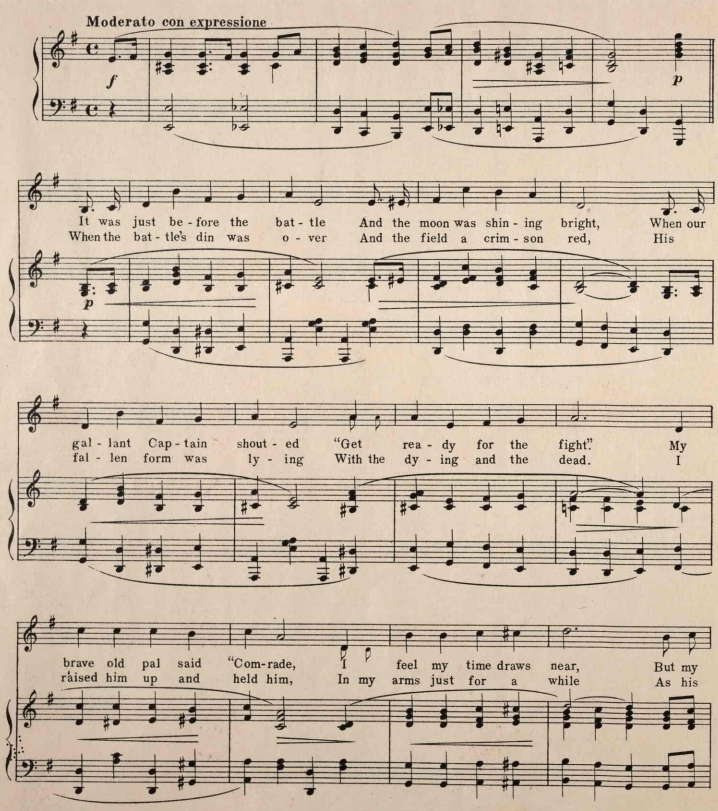
MUSIC BY
BARRINGTON L. BRANNAN

PUBLISHED BY
SELMORE PUBLISHING CO.
BROOKLYN, N.Y.

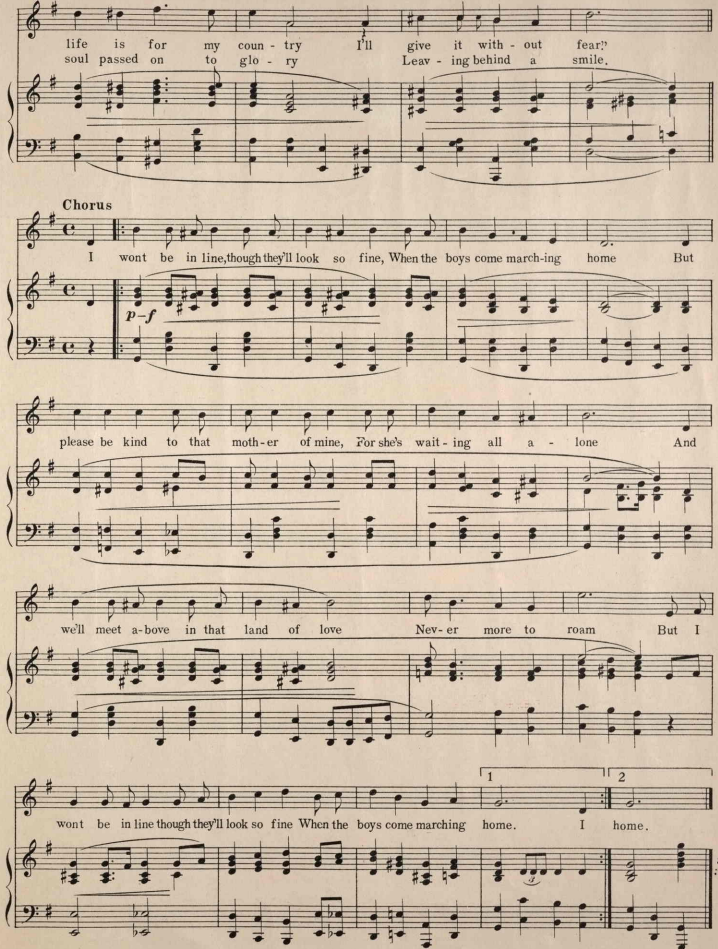
I Wont Be In Line
When The Boys Come Marching Home

Words by
ANTHONY MARINO

Music by
BARRINGTON L. BRANNAN



Copyright MCMXIX by B. L. Brannan & Anthony Marino



life is for my coun - try I'll give it with - out fear"
soul passed on to glo - ry Leav - ing behind a smile.
Chorus
I wont be in line, though they'll look so fine, When the boys come march-ing home But p–f please be kind to that moth-er of mine, For she's wait - ing all a - lone And we'll meet a-bove in that land of love Nev- er more to roam But I wont be in line though they'll look so fine When the boys come marching home. I home.
1
2

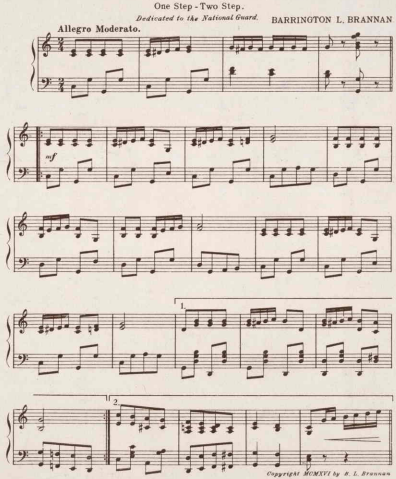
TRY THIS OVER ON YOUR PIANO

National Patrol.

One Step - Two Step.

Dedicated to the National Guard.

BARRINGTON L. BRANNAN



Copyright MCMXVI by B. L. Brannan

FOR SALE AT ALL MUSIC STORES