The introduction consists of two systems of piano accompaniment. The first system is marked 'Allegro' and 'INTRO.' and features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes in both hands. The second system is marked 'Moderato' and 'Famp.' and features a more melodic line in the right hand with a 'p' dynamic marking.

Moderato.

1. All the fighting nations are wa - ry, All the for-eign nations are blue, — But the out-look now is more cheer - y,

2. Spread a lit-tle cheer on the by - ways, Spread a lit-tle cheer in the home, — And our boys way - over the high - ways,

The first system of the main song is marked 'Moderato' and 'mf'. It contains two lines of lyrics. The piano accompaniment consists of block chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

Since the U. S. has come through. We will chase old Bill to his cor - ner, He will have to pay for what he's Cheer them wher-ev - er they roam. If you've had dis-com-forts and sor - rows, Cheer up, Un - cle Sam will see you done; . . . Raise up your voice and shout, Help put the Kais - er out, Just keep it up till we've won. . . .

The second system of the main song continues the lyrics. The piano accompaniment remains consistent with block chords and a bass line.

through; . . . Put on a cheer - ful smile, Just keep it up a-while, Old Un - cle Sam's smil - ing, too. . . .

Pod. *

The third system of the main song concludes the lyrics. The piano accompaniment features a final cadence. The system ends with the instruction 'Pod.' and an asterisk.

CHORUS.

Cheer up, cheer up, here comes the band! Cheer up, cheer up, won't it be grand! Cheer up, cheer up, though you feel blue, Our sol-dier boys are go-ing through; Help the cause, and give what you can,

Do your bit for Un-cle Sam, Some fine day you'll hear the bu-gle sound-ing, Throw all your cares a-way,

Keep smil-ing ev-'ry day, Cheer up, A-mer-i-ca! ca!

Cheer Up, America!
