The Sammies Are Coming

By
Francis W. Bourgeois ✓

The page contains six systems of musical staves. Each system is composed of three staves: a single treble clef staff on top, and a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) below it. The staves are currently blank, showing only the clefs and the five-line structure of each staff.

ral-ly to a man we'll crush the Kai--ser and his bloody clan-- they'll heed to the Redmine

The first system of the musical score features a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 4/4. The vocal line begins with a treble clef and contains the lyrics 'ral-ly to a man we'll crush the Kai--ser and his bloody clan-- they'll heed to the Redmine'. The piano accompaniment consists of a right-hand part with chords and a left-hand part with a steady bass line.

and Blue ----- Our moth-----ers Wives and Sweet hearts dear, All

The second system continues the musical score. The vocal line has a long note with a fermata over it, corresponding to the lyrics 'and Blue ----- Our moth-----ers Wives and Sweet hearts dear, All'. The piano accompaniment continues with similar harmonic support.

do their bit to cheer ----- So we'll bat-tle for the flag boys and our old Ur--

The third system shows the vocal line with the lyrics 'do their bit to cheer ----- So we'll bat-tle for the flag boys and our old Ur--'. The piano accompaniment features a more active bass line in the left hand.

cle Sami,----- to give the world its free-----dom free-dom -----

Repeat Chorus

The fourth system concludes the page with the lyrics 'cle Sami,----- to give the world its free-----dom free-dom -----'. Above the vocal line, the text 'Repeat Chorus' is written. The piano accompaniment ends with a final chord.

1. Here come the Sammies, Hip, Hip, Hurrah, the boys of the U. S. A.
They come from the North, they come from the South, from the West (they march away.
They go to strike for the Stars and Stripes, for the Red and the (White and Blue;
To fight for right and Uncle Sam and Yankee Doodle, too;
They're bound to put the Sausage Eater flatly on the bum;
They're bound to give the world its freedom from the bloody Hun;
And soon they'll tack on the Kaiser's shack this little sign "For Rent"
They'll never blink until that gink is to the devil sent.

Chorus-

Then Hip, Hurrah, Hurrah for Uncle Sam;
We'll stand by him, we'll rally to a man;
We'll crush the Kaiser and his bloody clan;
They'll heed to the Red, White and Blue.
Our mothers, wives and sweethearts dear
All do their bit to cheer;
So we'll battle for the flag, boys, and our old Uncle Sam
To give the world its freedom.

2. His royal job will worry him some when things are a-getting hot;
When Hindenburg has made a new line very close to Berlin-stadt;
His monster guns will go into junk and Fritz into No-man's-land;
(No meatless days for Sammy while he hunts the Kaiser clan)
And when Bill finds his brutal hordes are done cleaned up to stay
Then will that piker's grand mustache crock down the other way;
And when he throws up his "perish-kopf" and things look mighty sick
He'll find that he has lost his "Gott" and no one left but "Ich".
