The piano introduction is in 3/4 time, starting with a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic. The right hand features a melody of eighth notes, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The tempo is marked 'poco rall' (slightly slower). The introduction concludes with a redaction mark.

The first system of the song features a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The tempo is 'Con affetuoso'. The vocal line begins with a half note 'Tis' followed by eighth notes for the rest of the phrase. The piano accompaniment continues with the same eighth-note pattern as the introduction. A redaction mark is present at the end of the system.

A Tribute to France.

A Prophetic Voice of appealing grandeur and pathos out of the depths.

Poem by JAMES AUSTIN MURRAY

Music by ARTHUR BOWES

Lo! When the vandals' fire
Shall be silenced in the fray
Freedom from her throne triumphant
Shall o'er all the world hold sway.

Now we see thee faint and bleeding,
Heavy-laden with thy cross,
Yea! We hear thy plaintive pleading
And would help thee in thy loss.

Where thy pillaged homes and altars
Wrecked and burned, a ruin lies,
Deluged by the blood of martyrs
France more glorious shall arise!

When we end the reign of terror
By our sacrifice supreme,
Out from blackest night and error
Freedom's holy light shall gleam.
