MISS YOEMANETTE /

My maiden name is May B. Brilliant
I have a smile that is worth a million
I'm always full of pep, because I always watch my step
Now I have a nice young daddy, and he surely is some laddy
He works for Uncle Sam, I want to say he is some man
He wears a suit of blue and his face is a brownish hue,
And every morn in his uniform
He's near me when I say

Chorus:

My little wonderful boy
He fills my heart with joy
He does the semaphore, and what is more,
He plays and sings 'n everything
I want you all to meet, my sweetie, sweetie, sweet.
Oh, Uncle Sam, I want to thank you for my man
And now that I'm a Yoemanette, I'll surely win a bet
Far out at sea, my man and me, oh how happy we will be.
And when the war is done, and Democracy is won
I'll take my man with a wedding ban
Back to the U. S. A.
