©CLE425347
JUN -7 1918

R

"THE CALL OF THE RED, WHITE AND BLUE"

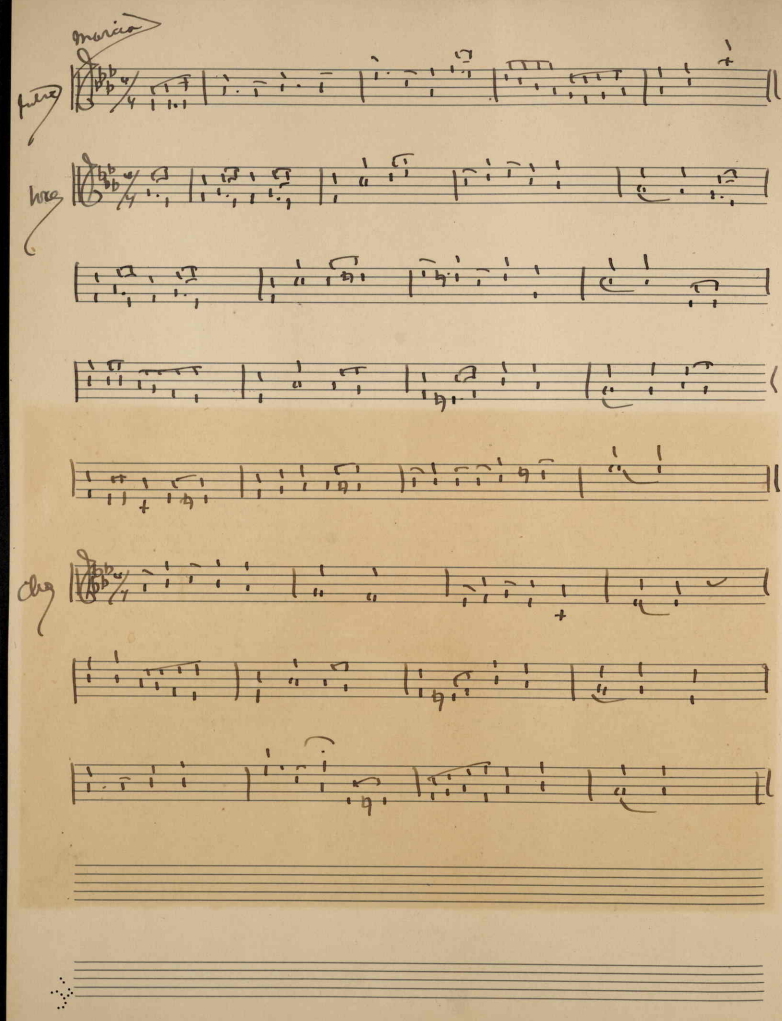
SONG

POEM & COPYRIGHT BY ORA FORD HESTER, 105 BRUTON ST. WILSON, N.C.

MUSIC BY

R. A. BROWNE,
790 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B



TheCall Of The Red,White,And Blue" By Ora Ford Chester.

1

There's a call for us all from the Nation;you can hear it throughout the land
One and all great and small everystation,to Old Glory must lend a hand;(true
There's a call for the heart's surrender,there's a call for the brave and
There's a call of the girl that you left behind and the call of the Red,
White,and Blue.

CHORUS.

Sweetheart,your country's calling--my heart is calling,too;
Dearest,the drums are beating;my heart is beating,too,just for you;
Do you hear the bugle sounding?that's the call for the brave and true;
So,good bye, y sweetheart!I need you,but Uncle Sammy needs me,too.

2

(true;
There's a service so great and so tender,there's a service so brave and so
There's a service that each one can render,there's a service for me and you
Soon in khaki away you'll be marching,but I know that you'll be true(&.Blue
You'll be true to the girl that you left behind,and true to the Red,White,