"Come,Beautiful Peace" By Mary Carlson.

Come beautiful Peace,come and set us all free;
Hang glorious flags out from every tree;
Come bearing the palm of the purest of gold;
Old friends,and their foes to clasp hands as of old.
Let then all rejoice midst the blowing of horns;
Wear crowns of sweet roses— not trimmed with sharp thorns;
To heal aching hearts and to heal battle scars;
And tell us that Hope and Truth are guiding stars.
CHORUS.
Come,beautiful Peace,we are waiting for you;
Beneath the bright stars of the Red,White,and Blue;
Old trouble and sorrow and anguish to cease;
Oh,Hasten thy coming— thou Beautiful Peace.
2
Let Beauty and Fame once again take their place.
For tears shall be washed from a many a face;
The sweet smiles of youth and the the bloom of old age;
Cross hatred and ruin from every page.
Build ships to sail out in,so proud and so fair;
And carry our Banners shades everywhere;
The Stars and Stripes welcomed in every land;
Wave high over seas and o'er glittering sand.
