"Dear Old Glory--The Pride Of Land And Sea" May M. Ketzer.

1

God grant a never failing light to those who'll love it, and defend,
And may its gleams be always bright, and show the wrong, till wrong shall end.
It shines far out on land and sea;
It is the light liberty!

2

May all the world that great light need; with right equality, to lead;
True hearts of ev'ry race and creed, have proved it in the nations need.
And from the homes across the sea;
To this sweet land of Liberty.

CHORUS.

Hail to the land whereon we tread!
Fredom is our proudest boast;
For the heroes who fought and bled,
To protect our dear dear coast;
It is our emore, no flag could we love more,
Protects the brave and shelters the free;
In the home and port of Liberty
Dear Old Glory the pride of land and sea.
