There's your statesman, Mr. Teddy, Uncle Samuel,
Who's forever rough and ready, Uncle Samuel;
Gets excited quite unduly
And a little bit unruly,
But he still remains yours truly, Uncle Samuel.

Chorus:

Teddy needs a little musket, Uncle Samuel,
In his hands you sure can trust it, Uncle Samuel,
You can safely give him twenty—
What he'll do will be a-plenty,
When he joins the big Entente, Uncle Samuel.

Chorus

Then your statesman, Billy Bryan, Uncle Samuel,
Who will never stop a-tryin', Uncle Samuel,
Till the Nation quits a-laggin',
Climbs upon the water wagon,
Slays for aye the great red dragon, Uncle Samuel.

Chorus:

If again you have to go, Uncle Samuel,
Way down South in Mexico, Uncle Samuel,
You the Rio Grande can straddle,
You know how to use the paddle;
Make the Greasers all skedaddle, Uncle Samuel.

Chorus:

There's your niece, Miss Suffragist, Uncle Samuel,
Who has never used her fist, Uncle Samuel,
But she's getting somewhat peeved,
And indeed a good bit grieved,
And she ought to be relieved, Uncle Samuel.

Chorus:

You love every class and color, Uncle Samuel,
You are just their great big brother, Uncle Samuel,
With the oceans 'round you curled,
And the Stars and Stripes unfurled,
You're the hope of all the world, Uncle Samuel.

Chorus:
