AMERICAN HYMN

Words and Music BY MRS. GEO. R. BROWN

We praise Thee Oh God for our coun-try so true, We thank Thee Oh God for the red, white and blue, for our coun-try so grand which gave Free-dom birth, For our own starry ban-ner that floats o'er the earth, The hope of the na-tion; the pride of our heart, May its glory be last-ing, its power never de-part.

Copyrighted 1918, by Mrs. Geo. R. Brown

We praise thee, Oh God, for prosperity sweet;
We thank thee, Oh God, for blessings replete;
For beauty of sky, of mountain and plain,
For blessings which come with the sun and the rain,
May our hearts fill with joy and with gratitude glow,
May we honor thee ever as onward we go.

We praise thee, Oh God, for our heroes unsung;
We thank thee, Oh God, for the challenge outflung
To right every wrong for the nations of men
'Till the world be made safe and 'till Peace reigns again;
May we lift up the cross of our Christ to the world,
May it's glory reflect on our banner unfurled.

We praise thee, Oh God, for our duty made plain;
We thank thee, Oh God, thou'rt the Saviour of men
For patriots brave who thrill at the thought,
Who are ready to die when the vision they've caught;
May the crown be our prize when all victories are past,
May the Cross and the Flag be our guide to the last.
