MAR 28 1918
©CLE422606

Words & Music by Lew Brown

I want him back again

Marcia Mad?

Vamps.

Voice

Your boy and your heart and my boys are o-ver the sea — Fight-ing for us and de-mo-cra-cy — my heart will ache and will yearn — Hop-ing and pray-ing our boys return — Still we were will-ing to see them go — we loved our cy — I know your boy means the world to you — mine means the

COPYRIGHT MCMXVIII BY BROADWAY MUSIC CORPORATION 145 WEST 45th STREET NEW YORK

M1646
.B

same it's true coun - try so
But be - fore his work is through - for the Old Red white and our Sac - ri - fice is great But if we were to Blue wait
Here's what I want Him to do
It might have been too late Chorus. (with marked rhythm)
I want him to fight I want him to win want him to do and dare
For vere in the right - and It's up to him — To go out and do his share — want him to know — he must strike a blow — To help his fel - low men — Then, when peace is de - clared — If his life is spared —

I want him back a - gain — a - gain —
1.
2.

426103