"For Freedom, God And Honor--In Memory Of Kitchener" By Mrs. Nancy Magill.

1

Half mast-half mast our Banners wave, the noble Kitchener lies,
Clasped in the oceans bosom deep, his canopy the skies;
For Freedom, God and Honor, his noble life he gave;
Then keep the Old Flag waving o'er Kitchener's ocean grave!

2

Roll on, roll on, ye ocean wild! but let your waves in grief;
Break softly o'er the Orkney Isles where heroes lie beneath;
Then let no vandal Germans, the ocean desecrate,
Where Kitchener's gallant comp'ny so bravely met their fate.

3

We want no coward slackers here, in gallant Kitchener's Own;
But true and faithful volunteers who'll fight till victory's won!
May patriots strive to follow, his footprints, xxxxxxxxx true; and brave;
And keep the Old Flag waving o'er Kitchener's ocean grave!

4

In life he called to you "Let not your comrades die in vain;
He calls you now from ocean depths to save our Nation's fame;
In Honor of his mem'ry, let millions heroes rise!
To win the Cause he died for, or join him in the skies.

CHORUS.

March on! March on, to Victory--brave soldiers of the King!
For Freedom, God, and Honor, this is the song we sing;
Avenge our Gallant Kitchener--for us his life he gave-
Then keep the Old Flag waving, above his ocean grave.
