Tempo di Marcia

The musical score is written in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins with a piano introduction in the right hand, marked 'Tempo di Marcia'. The vocal melody is introduced in the first system, with lyrics: 'There's a sound comes a - steal - ing through the still - ness, You can - But now we are one u - nit - ed coun - try, - One'. The piano accompaniment consists of chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The second system continues the vocal line: 'hear it creep - ing o'er the land. 'Tis the hun - dred mill - ion strong, And the'. The third system concludes the piece with the lyrics: 'spir - it of Seven - ty - Six, When we had our lit - tle mix, And the boys on land and sea, Are as brave as brave can be, And they'. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support throughout, with a steady bass line and chordal textures in the right hand.
