"God Speaks To The Nations, A Song For World Peace" Julia D. Dutton.

1

Come, listen all ye nations, and hear the Father's voice;
Now, come to me, my ~~xxxx~~ children, yea, hasten and rejoice;
For great will your reward be, when you do heed my call;
For I will send rejoicing unto your peoples, all!
So, put away the helmet, and gather to the plow;
With hoe and spade and mattock, and do it even now;
Yes, let the world get ready, to reap the harvest great;
For I shall come to make you, rule in my High Estate.

2

The joy will fill each household and joy will fill each land;
And ships will sail in safety, across the ocean's strand;
While bringing ev'ry product from each far distant shore;
Unto your world of commerce and wealth to you restore;
Then let your great torpedoes loud celebrate the day;
When Hate has been forgotten and anger thrown away;
When love in ev'ry household, and love in ev'ry heart,
In all your progress growing I then will take a part.

3

For know ye that I love ye, ye nations of the earth;
My love will still preserve you, in all your greatest worth;
Remember I am Ruler--far greater than ye all;
Amid the din of battle, an, hear my kindly call;
So, lay aside the musket, and let the cannons cease;
And let the world be governed, by kindly rule of Peace;
And let your wondrous airships, sail in the clouds above;
And bear the joyful message 'Our God Is Light and Love'.

REFRAIN.

For I am God of love--yes,I am God of love!
On all your earthly troubles I look down from above;
So,let your lion's passions, be changed to peace's dove;
For I am God of love,yes,I am God of love.
