DEC 19 1918
©CLE440323
R

"HAIL THE FLAG!"

(Song.)

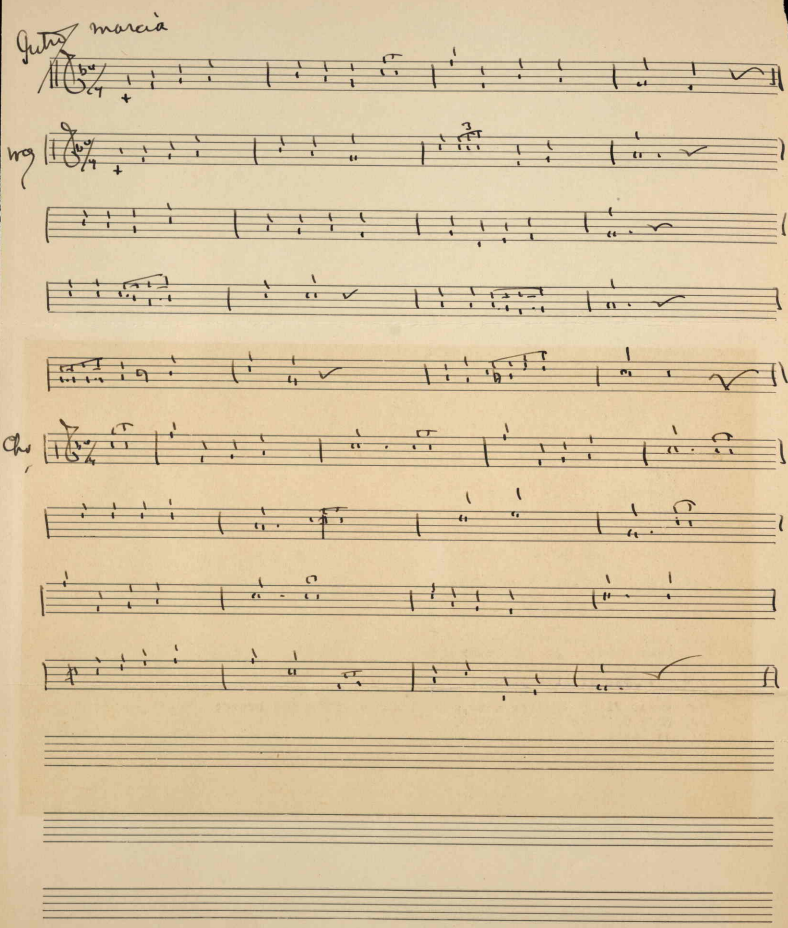
Poem By Wm. L. ROOMAN, (PRINCH) S.D.

MUSIC BY

R. A. BROWNE,
700 DARWIN ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 4—12 lines.

H1646
.B



Guit
marcia
Org
Cho

"Hail The Flag!" Wm.L. Vrooman.

1

Hail !our Country's noble Flag!
Hail, all of its Stripes and Stars!
Glory's thine--ye Yankee heroes!
And all of ye Yankee tars!
You who carried It beforeyou!
Carried It so proud, before!
Fighting bravely all around it,
That the demons huns ye'd bar!

2

Hail !our Allies, brave and true!
With your Flags of many a hue!
See our Flag it waves so proudly,
Side by side, on high, with you;
Cries of pain are stilled and over
And your metal's proven true;
Smaller friends shall l ve all, peaceful,
And all joys of life pursue.

CHORUS.

May those Flags forever wave, over lands of free and brave;
May they mothers ere be proud, of the ones they gave;
To the Cause of Liberty, and the homesour boys did save,
To end the rule of tyrants and the autocractic knave.

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 4—12 lines.

447365