"Hats Off To Miss Liberty!" L. W. French. 22

1

Hands are stretched out across the sea to Samuel and Miss Liberty;
We patriotic, staunch, and true, Miss Liberty's been good to you;
You have the feedom of herland, so come along, and show your sand,
For every true blue resident, will stand pat for our President.

2

Our farmer boys the soil will till; our Red Cross girls will show their skil
With tender care do our brave boys they're not afraid of battles' noise!
Then three Cheers for Miss Liberty! her Army, Navy and Paree;
The world will sing a song of glee, for this cradle of world Liberty!

CHORUS.

Hats off to Miss Liberty!
Honor to her pedigree;
She has always won and hasnever lost,
And she never stops, no matter what the cost!
Her army is fine and her navy is greatm
She has Sammies who can aviate;
The world will sing in a chorous of glee,
America, the cradleof Liberty!
