I'M PROUD TO BE THE MOTHER OF A LOYAL SOLDIER MAN.

By S.T.Fruit.

1.

A woman;old and feeble, by a window
sat one day;
A thinking of her only son,who'd
gone so far away;
In far off France was fighting like
a soldier brave and true;
And she knew he was loyal to the old Red,White,and Blue.

2.

There's many boys trying to escape
from serving Uncle Sam;
In every town and village they are known,yes to a man.
But wouldn't their dear mother be so proud of them some day
If their boys did die in battle and they through their tears could say.

Chorus.

"I'm glad that my son was no slacker
I raised him to be honest and be true
He never asked for an exemption
From the old Red,White and Blue
He's loyal to his Country
I gave him to Uncle Sam
I'm proud to be the Mother
Of a loyal Soldier Man."
