"If You Love Your Uncle Sammy" By Mary Jane Lee.

1

There is music in the air; bombs are flying ev'rywhere;
And our Uncle Sammy's boys are on the job;
Kaiser Bill is out to kill but we'll soon give him his fill;
Uncle Sammy's smoke his power it will rob;
But you've got to help us folks at home, somehow;
If you love your Uncle Sammy, prove it now!

CHORUS.

All we ask is don't forget us, Over There;
You were left behind, now then, do your share;
With loyal hearts, so true, we'll keep fighting just for you;
If you love your Uncle Sammy do it, now!
If you love your Uncle Sammy, do it now!

2

Sammy's in the game to stay, Germans they all run away;
But they'll never see the back of our boy's coat;
Hey there, Billi! we'll get you, yet! and it's not a joke--you bet;
We are bound to get the poor old Kaiser's goat.
Can your girl, at home, knit sox from night to morn;?
If she loves her Uncle Sammy, she'll eat corn.
