©CLE437625
NOV 27 1918

I'M A LANKY YANKEE DOODLE MAN

And I Love The Flag of Uncle Sam.

Patriotic Song and Chorus.

Written by

Jas. E. Lynam

Music by

R. A. Browne

PUBLISHED BY P.B. STORY
NEW YORK CITY NEW YORK

M1646
.B

I'm A Lanky Yankee Doodle Man

Words by JAMES E. LYNAM

Music by
R. A. BROWNE

Marcia

Piano

f

A mil - lion Yan - kee Doo - dle Doos are fight - ing and they'll win; Ten We'll wave that dear old flag of ours the grand Red, White and Blue, And

mf

mil - lion more are rea - dy and say when they do be - gin They'll how we'll fight, yes we will fight, like Yan - kees, al - ways do By chase the Kais - er's arm - y in - to Ber - lin out of sight? Be - what is right we're stead - ied and we're sure we're going to win; We're cause they're fight - ing o - ver there for what is just and right.

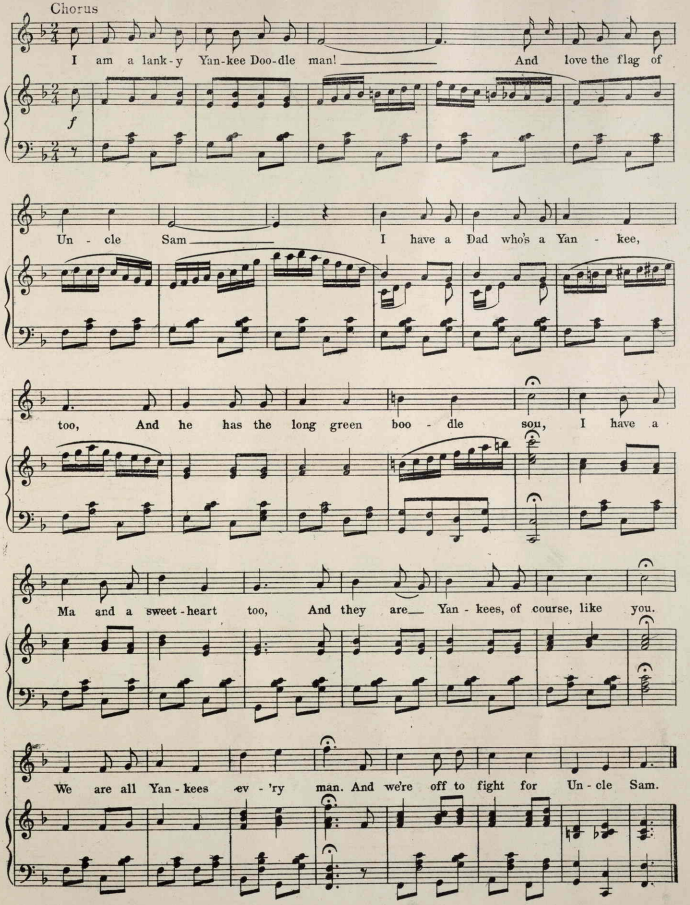
going to chase the Kais - er's arm - y right in - to Ber - lin.

Copyright MCMXVIII by James E. Lynam



Chorus
I am a lank-y Yan-kee Doo-dle man! And love the flag of f Un - cle Sam I have a Dad who's a Yan - kee, too, And he has the long green boo - dle sou, I have a Ma and a sweet-heart too, And they are Yan - kees, of course, like you.
We are all Yan-kees ev - 'ry man. And we're off to fight for Un - cle Sam.