"In The Good Old U.S.A." By L.M.Speakman.

Now, up and be right ready, brothers, yes, and sisters, too;
For Uncle Sam, he needs us, now, -- there's work for all to do;
We've friends down there in Mexico, and also in Japan,
We'll keep our eyes on Germany, to block her ev'ry plan.
Stand ~~xxxx~~ by the good old Stars and Stripes--be ready for the call;
To go and fight the Kaiser, we will be there--one and all;
To save our Country's honor, we are ready to obey;
While out in France they're fighting, here, at home, we'll work and pray;
We'll make the Kaiser sorry that he roused the U.S.A.

CHORUS.

Then, rally 'round Old Glory, each and ev'ry mother's son;
Stand by our noble President in all that he wants done;
While, in France, our boys are fighting, here, at home, we'll work and pray;
There'll be no slackers here within our good Old U.S.A.

So, up and be right ready, brothers, yes, and sisters, too;
For Uncle Sammy needs us now--there's work for you to do;
To keep us out of trouble, Wilson's done all that he can;
He's called our Army, navy, too--we're with him, to a man.
If we must fight the Kaiser, why, you bet he'll want to run;
When he sees Uncle Sammy's troops--the men behind the gun--
If Europe needs our help, why, we are ready to obey;
While out in France they're fighting, here, at home, we'll work and pray.
The Germans will regret they meddled with the U. S.A.
