MAY 29 1917 ©cl.E 403528

"A MIGHTY WAR"

SONG

POEM. and COPYRIGHT. BY CLARA TAYLOR G.D.P.O. PHOENIX. ARIZ.

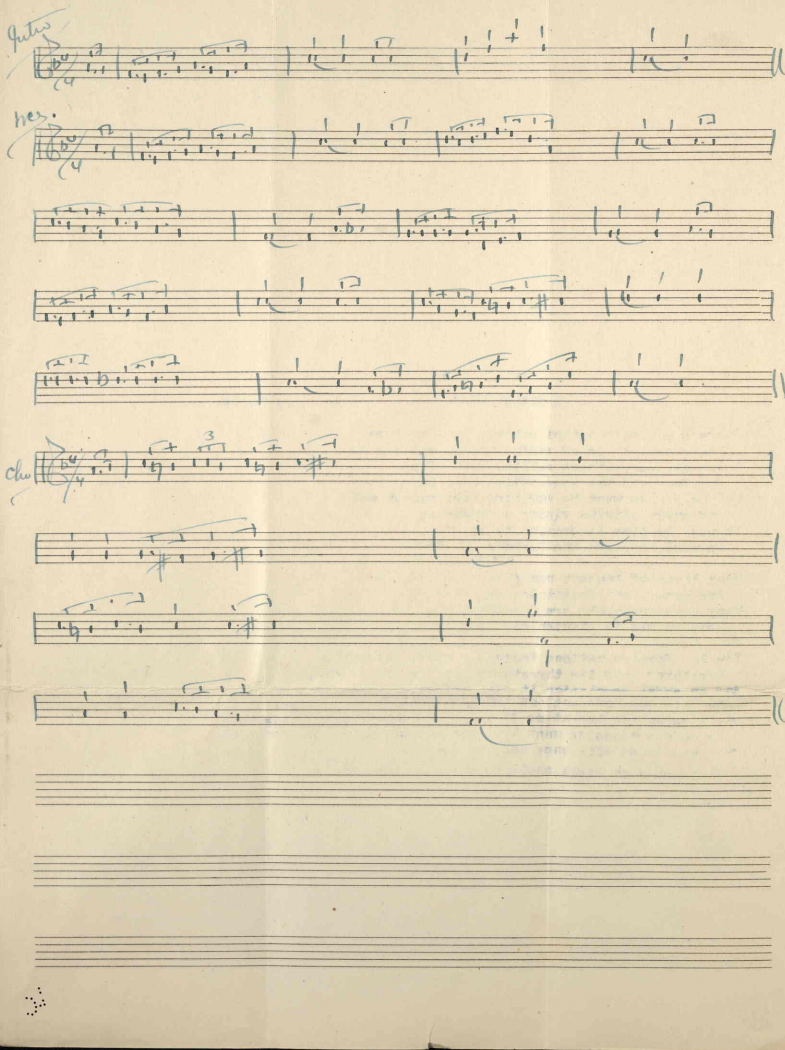
MUSIC BY

R. A. BROWNE,
790 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

ART BRAND No. 10

M1646

B



Guitar
Bass
Clar

"A MIGHTY WAR" By Clare Gayler.

There's a mighty nation calling out for war;
  There are masses of confusion,woe,and strife;
There are many others calling from afar;
  For food and all necessities of life.
Oh the demons must be dwelling here amongst men
  And angry spirits rising ev'rywhere;
It must be time is drawing to an end,
  It must come..as the Saviour did declare.
CHORUS.
Many lives of incocent men they have been taken,
  And homes left destitute, and bare;
Many precious souls are forsaken,
  Left to die in anguish and despair.
2
In the foreign nations there;s a great contempt,
  Breathing loud its threats of trouble and of war;
And an awful desolation it will bring;
  To this our home and country now so fair.
Shall we go out to battle just to kill xxxxxxxxxxxxx
  Or,no for peace we must try hard xxxxxxxxxxxxxxx and long,
Then happiness will once more be restored,
  When peace on earth shall be our one grand song.

407227