

words by G.R. Robertson.

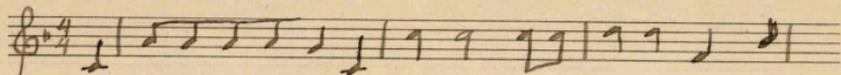

music by Raymond A. Browne

©GLE 26235

MAY 29 1918

R

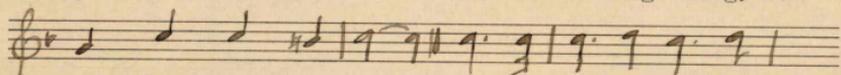

MY SUNSHINE GIRL.

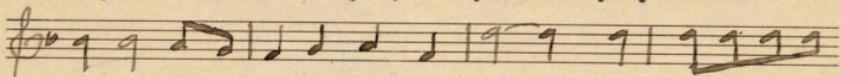

When I met you the sun was shining in a sky of cloudless blue, With Autumn leaves the still street brightning, And <sup>the</sup>

the day seemed made for you; For your sunny eyes were smiling, Not a shadow dimmed their views, The Old Town it <sup>was</sup>

was brighter, For you made my heart lighter, On the day

when I met you.

(2).

Many glad hours we spent together, In the mellow fall sunlight, But I found 'twas not the weather Made the dull town seem so bright;

2nd Chorus.

There were cloudy days that followed, There were times when I was blue; But when we were together 'Twas always pleasant weather, Little Sunshine Girl with you.

(3).

Now the world's day of peace has darkened, And my day has darkened too, For no happy heart will cheer me, While the warclouds hide the blue.

3rd Chorus.

For my sunshine girl I'm fighting 'Neath our old Red, White and Blue; May your sunny eyes shining Be my cloud's silver lining, When I return to you.

M1646

